

NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S DAYBOOK—Dixon township Supervisor A. C. Higby is a believer in democracy—great gobs of it—and if you get into a conversation with him you'll see what we mean. He's a militant fighter for the people's right to rule, vote and control things governmental.

He got over a pretty sizeable chunk of his views at the town meeting the other night before an audience of approximately 50 taxpayers.

"HIG" TOSSED out his budget and levy and then invited comments. "This is your meetin'", he repeatedly told his audience and practically dared everyone in the place to question items on the list of expected expenditures for next year.

Taxpayers don't worry him as they do a lot of office-holders. Higby is apparently convinced of his own honesty and cloaked with that feeling, he thinks that a bit of adverse criticism can only throw a new light on the subject of government.

THE COLORFUL Dixon township supervisor invited the taxpayers to fire him the other night. He said he didn't care if he served as supervisor of general assistance or not. You don't often hear public officials going around shouting that they want to be fired. But Higby said it, and we believe he meant it. He wasn't shaken the other night either when a man in the audience told him to "shut up and let somebody else talk." That didn't throw "Hig"; he likes the rough-and-tumble of good ol' town meetings.

TUESDAY'S TOWN meeting lasted three hours. In most townships, the annual business is merely perfunctory and we've known instances where officials had to drag taxpayers off the street in order to have enough to cast the necessary votes. A town meeting needs a moderator and at least a couple of others to make the motions to adopt the levies and ordinances legally.

IT'S HIGBY'S contention that local government is going by default. That accounts for the rash of township ordinances passed the other night. Higby says he'll put 'em, (the laws) on the books and invite a test of their constitutionality. Township laws have never had a good supreme court test anyway, he says.

OUR PERSONAL opinion is that some of the ordinances adopted the other night are on shaky ground and we told Higby so. One in particular would bring government back to the local level with a bang—if not an explosion. That was the one regulating junk yards, second hand furniture stores and used car lots outside of the corporate limits of Dixon.

The ordinance gives the supervisor the right to revoke a license of one of these businesses for: "Conviction of a felony (referring to the owner, we suppose); obtaining license under false pretenses, dishonest business practices, failure to comply with any applicable zoning law, and violation of any provisions of the rule or bylaw."

The ordinance specifies that the supervisor shall establish "reasonable rules and regulations" for the health, protection and welfare of the residents of the township.

We'd say, and "Hig" will agree with us, that that ordinance puts a good-sized hunk of arbitrary control in the hands of the supervisor.

Adventists Purchase 60-Acre Estate for Summer Program

BROOKFIELD — (AP)—The Illinois conference of the Seventh Day Adventists announced today it has purchased Reynoldswood, a large estate near Dixon, for an outdoor youth center.

Financial details of the purchase were not made public. The Rev. J. L. McConaughy of Brookfield, president of the Illinois Conference, said his group for the last 20 years has rented camp sites from different organizations at Decatur, Rockford and Ottawa to provide summer outdoor recreation for young members of the denomination.

Broaden Program

It has been their objective, Mr. McConaughy said, eventually to own their own camp site "so as to carry on a more extensive program for the youth of the denomination."

"The Seventh Day Adventists conduct a strong program for their youth," he added, "sponsoring pathfinder and neighborhood groups and offering a complete summer program which includes camping, hiking, and swimming, handicraft instruction with practical religion as a central theme."

"This over-all program tends to build better and stronger christian character in our youth today and helps to stem the tide of moral decay so prevalent in the world."

60-Acres Purchased

Mr. McConaughy said the purchase includes the former 25-room mansion, a swimming pool, tennis court and some 60 acres of rugged wooded land bordering the Rock River near Dixon. The estate was owned by Mrs. Esther Ralston, a widow, now staying in San Francisco. Mrs. Ralston moved out of the property some three months ago.

Mr. McConaughy said some 500 Illinois young people will vacation at the new camp this summer, divided in groups according to age. The camp will be coeducational, he said. He stated that other improvements and facilities will be added to it "to make this one of the most attractive youth retreats in the country."

Start July 1

The summer season will open with a senior youth camp starting July 1, followed by junior and teen age groups throughout the summer.

Mr. McConaughy said the Seventh Day Adventists last year maintained 145 camps for their youth in the United States and Canada, with a total enrollment of 14,000 young people.

Lee Center High School Youth Disagrees With Principal, He Gets Correspondence Schooling

LEE CENTER—(Special)—The story of how a Lee Center high school youth is taking a "correspondence course" in the school from his home was revealed here today after a hearing had been called off involving the boy and Walter Wilson, school principal.

James Partington, a junior, is studying at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Partington, rural Lee Center, after leaving school "because the principal hit him."

Claims Son Hit

Mrs. Partington said this morning that Wilson hit her son with his hand recently when the boy and other students were "cutting up" in the school. She said her son was expelled at that time, but since has reached an agreement with Wilson and District 271 Superintendent E. G. Horn, permitting young Partington to continue his studies from his home.

Horn Statement

Wilson, reported to be in Champaign today, was not available for comment.

But Horn said this morning that Partington "was not expelled" and that he went home of his own decision.

Asked if it were true Wilson hit Partington with his hand as reported, Horn said:

"I'm not too sure."

Horn also was asked if Partington could continue his studies at home and be accredited legally. He replied:

"We are going to check on that. It's like a correspondence course. We have several students in the school taking correspondence courses from other schools."

Hearing Called Off

A hearing had been scheduled for tonight between Partington and Wilson before District 271 board. But it was called off after the agreement between the principal and the youth had been made.

Mrs. Partington said her son "did not like the principal" and that he previously had quit school because of that.

"But we persuaded him to go back that time," she added.

Three Die in Auto Crash

EFFINGHAM —(AP)—Two cars carrying 10 boys and girls crashed last night. Three died.

A truck was also involved and although wrecked, its driver was unhurt.

The dead all lived at St. Elmo in adjacent Fayette county.

They were in one car. State police said the fourth was unhurt.

Several of the six in the other car were taken to an Effingham hospital, but police said their injuries were not serious.

The crash occurred about 9 p.m., about six miles west of Effingham on U.S. Highway 40 near Dexter.

Sports Banquet Committee Will Meet Tonight

A committee meeting of the Downtown Quarterbacks, sponsors of the Dixon all-sports banquet to be held April 29, will be held at 8:30 o'clock tonight in the Evening Telegraph offices.

Tickets for the event, featuring Coach O'Connor of the University of Iowa, are now on sale. Women fans as well as men are invited to attend.

Firemen Remove Body of Patient

FIREMEN AT THE DIXON STATE HOSPITAL remove the body of a 56-year-old patient who has been tentatively identified as John Vondracek, Berwyn, from a tunnel beneath cottage A-6. The body was found this morning by electricians who were working in the tunnel. Firemen were forced to use gas masks (far left) because of the strong odor from the partially decomposed body. Officials said that Vondracek had been missing since Feb. 16.

AN EDITORIAL

Strike a Blow for Liberty

If you were denied the right to vote you would fight and die, if need be, for the privilege. So why will people stay away from the polls when vital issues are at stake? Maybe the voters of America are now sufficiently alerted to the grave dangers that confront this nation if new and honest leaders are not put in office so that they will make a start in that direction by nominating good men in the coming primary elections to be held, in Illinois, next Tuesday.

Of course, we are not all agreed on whom these best leaders are. The Telegraph has its opinion on the merits of the various candidates and we offer them to you for your consideration. Whatever your views, we strongly urge you to get to the polls next Tuesday and put your convictions into force through your ballot.

Taft Is Our Hope

As we have said repeatedly in these columns, we feel that Senator Robert Taft, on the Republican ticket, is the most competent and most courageous leader we can vote for for president. The New Hampshire vote and the Minnesota write-in discouraged some friends of Taft but the Wisconsin election and the Nebraska write-in shows that Taft is still holding a strong lead over all opponents and we think that is a sign that Americans are still regarding Bob Taft as the bulwark defending them from the loss of freedom in this nation.

Stratton for Governor

If the Republican party hopes to regain control of government in Illinois William G. Stratton, candidate for governor, is their hope. Before we can elect a governor we must nominate one that has the confidence of the people and the ability to get their votes, and Stratton is the man.

Going on down the primary ballot you will be handed on Tuesday we make the following recommendations after careful consideration of the many candidates on the Republican primary ballot:

- For Lieutenant Governor: John D. Biggs.
 - For Secretary of State: Charles F. Carpentier.
 - For Auditor of Public Accounts: Orville E. Hodge.
 - For State Treasurer: Elmer J. Hoffman.
 - For Attorney General: Latham Castle.
 - For Representative in Congress: Leo E. Allen.
 - For Delegates to National Nominating Convention: (Vote for two) John P. Manning and Arthur Rasmussen.
 - For Alternate Delegates: (Vote for two) Marie L. Sheehey and Ronald E. Shawger.
 - For State Central Committeeman: Stanley H. Guyer.
 - For Representative in General Assembly: (Vote for one or two) George S. Brydia and Charles K. Willett.
 - For Senatorial Committeeman: Leon W. Miller.
 - For Clerk of the Circuit Court: John O. Shaulis, Jr.
 - For State's Attorney: James E. Bales.
 - For Coroner: Robert F. Preston.
 - For Precinct Committeeman: Where there are contests, for a man who has given good Republican service in your precinct or who is in a position to give good service to the party and who will be a credit to the party.
- And above all, please do not let anything keep you from getting to the polls and casting your vote next Tuesday.
- THE EDITOR.

State Hospital Patient Found Dead in Tunnel

Missing Three Months; Workers Find Berwyn Man

The body of a Dixon state hospital patient was discovered in a tunnel beneath cottage A-6 at the hospital this morning by two electricians working there.

The body, badly decomposed, was tentatively identified as that of John Vondracek, 56, Berwyn, who has been missing since Feb. 16. Shoes found near the body were identified as those of Vondracek, who had been a patient here since 1919.

No Violence

Preliminary investigation by Sheriff Charles Reidebaugh and Coroner Robert Preston before the body was removed from the tunnel disclosed no weapons or signs of violence.

James Knga, 1523 West Third st., and Harold Wickler, 1103 Cooper st., state hospital electricians from Dixon, discovered the body today at 8:30 a.m.

The tunnel in which the body was found is known as a "crawl space" to electricians and steamfitters. These tunnels, built beneath the outside walls of each cottage, house steam pipes and electrical conduits. They measure approximately four feet by four feet.

Single Entrance

The tunnel to cottage A-6 has a single entrance, an opening beneath ground level at the northeast corner of the building. It can be entered only from the outside of the building.

The body was discovered at the northwest corner of the tunnel, approximately 25 feet from the entrance.

Knox and Wickler had been working in the tunnel Wednesday and remarked that they detected a peculiar odor at that time. They had been working in another portion of the tunnel. Today, they said, the odor was much stronger and a check of the tunnel disclosed the body.

Committed in 1916

Vondracek was committed to the state institution at Lincoln, Ill., in 1916. He was brought to Dixon in 1919, soon after the state hospital was opened here, according to Dr. C. K. Bush, superintendent.

Vondracek was sent to the infirmary in mid-January when he refused to eat, Dr. Bush said. He was sent back to his cottage—A-6—on Feb. 16, and disappeared that night.

According to Dr. Bush, he has no close relatives that are known to the state hospital.

A time for the inquest had not been set at noon today.

Jaycee Safety Program Will Feature Court

Two traffic safety programs will be sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce within the next three days.

A traffic safety court will be held at 7 p.m. Friday at Loveland community house with 50 traffic violators expected to attend. City, educational and civic officials have been invited.

Tickets ordering appearance at the program have been received by persons living in the city and county who have violated traffic laws since March 29. A film will be shown and talks given by members of the city and state police departments.

More than 85 school patrol leaders from Dixon schools will tour state police headquarters Saturday morning at Sterling. They also will hear a talk by Lt. Templeton, Sterling, state police supervisor.

Both programs have been arranged by the Jaycees in connection with their current traffic safety campaign.

IN HOSPITAL

Doug Breunlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Breunlin, Sycamore, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuhs, Dixon, entered a Syracuse hospital Wednesday night for a lung operation.

Cleanup Man Gets Ax After Capital Row

Dismissal Follows Talks With Truman; Declines Statement

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath today fired Newbold Morris as the administration's corruption sleuth.

The attorney general made public a curt letter to the New York Republican, notifying him of the immediate termination of his services.

McGrath personally handed copies of the letter to reporters at the Justice department, but declined to answer any questions as to whether President Truman had formally approved the action.

Firing Follows Talks

The firing followed a series of McGrath-Truman talks yesterday—including an apparently heated argument at National Airport here while the two were waiting to greet Queen Juliana of the Netherlands.

There had been some speculation that McGrath himself might be let out in the row over a financial questionnaire Morris posed for government officials.

McGrath himself on Feb. 1, appointed the 50-year-old Morris, former president of the New York City council, to ferret out corruption in the government.

McGrath Defies Him

Last Monday, however, McGrath told a House investigating committee he did not know whether he would fill out his own questionnaire, and had not ordered any else in his department to do so.

He also said that if he had the appointment to make again he would not pick Morris.

McGrath's letter started off with no salutation except the word "Sir." Morris's name was at the end.

The text:

"Sir:

"Please be informed that your appointment as a special assistant to the attorney general is hereby terminated and your services as an employee of the Department of Justice shall cease at the close of business today.

"You are hereby requested to deliver all files, records and documents in your offices to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"Very truly yours,

"J. Howard McGrath,

"Attorney General.

"Honorable Newbold Morris, "Special assistant to the attorney general, "Old Washington Post Building, Washington, D.C."

The order that Morris deliver his records to the FBI led to immediate speculation that FBI Director Hoover may be given the clean-up job.

However, McGrath sternly refused to add anything to the letter's content.

He shook his head in negation when reporters urged him to outline "Where do we go from here."

Truman himself could disclose the answer at a news conference scheduled for 3 p.m. Central Standard Time.

Driverless Auto Hits Parked Car

A driverless car was damaged and it also caused damage to a parked auto yesterday afternoon near the Dixon hotel parking lot.

The driverless car, owned by Henry H. Garrett, no address available, rolled backward down a hill and crashed into an auto belonging to James Dickinson, Amboy.

Damage to the cars was not estimated.

Germ Warfare Photos Fake, Times Claims

NEW YORK—(AP)—The New York Times today published what it called conclusive evidence of the falsity of Communist photo charges that the United States is waging germ warfare in North Korea and China.

The evidence consisted of statements by American experts on pictures which the Chinese Reds originally printed in the Peiping People's Daily March 15 as proof of the charges against the U. S.

These American experts said the pictures, identified in the Chinese captions as those of deadly bugs dropped by U. S. invaders, were actually photos of harmless insects incapable of carrying disease, the Times said.

The U. S. army, furthermore, identified a bomb which the Chinese claimed was a germ carrier as an M1621 used for spreading psychological warfare leaflets, the Times said.

The experts consulted about the pictures were Dr. C. H. Curran, chief curator of insects and spiders at the American Museum of Natural History; Dr. Rene Dubos, bacteriologist of the Rockefeller Institute, and army spokesmen.

1,200,000 New Men to Don Uniforms

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Manpower officials say an increase of 110,000 men in the armed forces during the fiscal year starting July 1 means about 1,200,000 new men must don uniforms.

Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, defense manpower boss, told the house appropriations committee in testimony made public yesterday that the large majority of new recruits will merely replace those relieved from active duty.

The increase of 110,000 will build up the military force to 3,700,000 Mrs. Rosenberg said.

Spring Floods Cause Trouble In Six States

By The Associated Press
Hundreds of persons in river communities in six midwest and western states were made homeless today by spring floods.

The most serious flood appeared in Havre, Mont., where the Milk river spilled over its banks and forced some 1,200 persons in the city of 8,000 population to leave their homes. Martial law was declared in the northern part of the city to protect homes and business houses from looting. Damage already has been estimated at more than $300,000. Rapidly melting snow in the nearby Bearpaw mountains sent the Milk river to overflowing.

About 10 residential blocks were flooded in Pierre, S. D., as the Missouri river climbed a half foot above flood stage. Small sections of nearby Fort Pierre also were flooded by the Missouri and its tributary Bad river.

Missouri Overflowing
The Missouri also was overflowing in parts of North Dakota, including portions of the Buford-Trenton irrigation project near Williston.

Floods also have hit parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa, but no serious damage was reported.

Cooler weather was reported over most of the flooded area, with below freezing in most of the Northern Plains states. It also was cooler in parts of New England, the Middle and South Atlantic states and the Ohio valley. Mild weather continued along the Gulf coast and in Texas and Oklahoma westward to the Pacific coast.

Snow flurries fell over most of the Great Lakes region and in the upper Mississippi valley early today. Rain and snow flurries were reported in the Northeastern states with snow in parts of Maine. Showers and thunderstorms hit the central plains states and showers were reported in Montana.

Calendars always had wooden pages in Denmark and Sweden during ancient times.

Release Study on Two State Mines

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Knox and Yingling Fluorspar mines in Hardin county, Ill., are the subject of a new study by the bureau of mines.

W. L. Burmeister, mining engineer at the bureau's eastern experiment station, College Park, Md., wrote the report.

It contains an analysis of four diamond drill-hole cores taken from the mines between Feb. 6 and May 25, 1951, in an effort by the bureau to increase the Fluorspar supply.

The Yingling mine had produced 8,500 tons of ore containing 60 per cent Fluorspar by June, 1949, and 3,450 tons of 45 to 50 per cent ore.

By June, 1949, the Knox mine had produced 15,700 tons of 60 to 65 per cent Fluorspar ore. Both mines have been worked intermittently.

Here's Rundown On Senate Vote

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Here is how the following Midwest senators voted yesterday when the senate passed, 50 to 35, a bill giving the states clear title to lands beneath the marginal seas:

For the bill (50)—Capehart (R-Ind.), Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Against the bill (35) Douglas (D-Ill.), Gillette (D-Iowa), Hennings (D-Mo.), Wiley (R-Wis.).

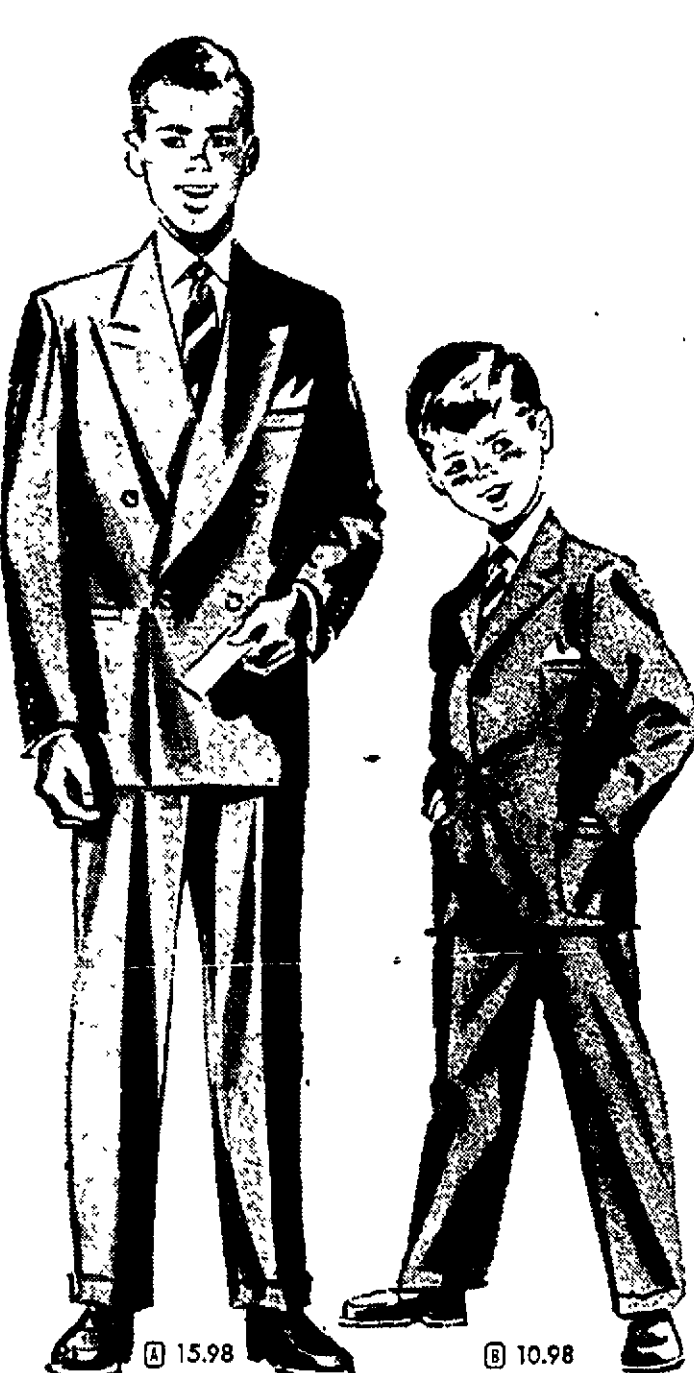

Not voting but announced as in favor of the bill: Dirksen (R-Ill.).

Lax States Should Take Action to Assure Votes to Servicemen

One of the most prized results of our system of 48 state governments is the formulation of a wide range of laws peculiarly adapted to the distinctive needs of the country's richly varied population. This spells genuine democracy.

Yet many problems demand more uniform solutions, and it ought to be possible to find those answers in at least some instances without resort to the federal government.

Unfortunately, the record in this respect is not too encouraging. Our state laws governing such universal issues as divorce, motor truck operation, and presidential primaries are absurd hodge-podges.

Right now we have before us an important illustration of this difficulty. In America's armed services are some 2,500,000 men and women eligible to vote in the fall elections. If democracy means anything at all, it certainly ought to mean that Americans serving their country should have a voice in choosing its leaders. But in the present condition of state laws affecting the soldier vote, relatively few of these men and women are likely to have access to a ballot.

Some states do not provide for absentee voting at all. Some do not mail out absentee ballots far enough in advance to allow for return from foreign lands in time for counting on election day. Here and there a state requires registration by servicemen in person—an obvious impossibility for a soldier in Korea.

In half of the 48 states, therefore, this country's men and women in uniform stand to lose the voting privilege which is the greatest right of their citizenship.

We faced the same problem in 1944, in the midst of World War II. At that time many states passed new legislation designed to cope with the matter. But, to avoid disfranchising millions of servicemen from states which did not act, congress stepped in to legalize a "bottled" federal ballot.

Under this national legislation, a soldier could at least vote for candidates for president and for other federal office.

Since only 2,500,000 of an eligible 9,000,000 servicemen and women voted in 1944, you might imagine that the states would have moved forthwith to improve their absentee balloting regulations to assure better results in the future. Apparently few if any states took that course. So it looks like 1944 all over again—or maybe worse. Plainly the remedy for this shameful situation rests with the states. They still have time to act, though in many instances it would mean calling their legislatures into special session.

The states which understand their responsibility to their citizenry will not let this opportunity pass. States which fail to act must have this elemental lesson in democracy drummed into them in another way.

That way is for the federal government once more to adopt a national ballot that will assure to every serviceman the right to vote at least for federal candidates this year. President Truman has called for such legislation. It ought to get the immediate attention of congress.

Where the voting rights of the American citizen are concerned, and especially the citizen soldier, there can be no excuse for legislative hemming and hawing. Action is the only language that deserves to be heard.

HST's Guiding Light

The sequence of events that occurred upon the president's return to Washington is strongly suggestive. Mr. Truman and his wife re-enter the White House after an absence of more than three years. The very next day he tells the country he's quitting the presidency.

If this happened to anybody else, you'd guess that Bess didn't like the new White House decor (where it is new). There might be a little truth in this notion at that. Mrs. T. never had been too fond of the old place. And it's a foolhardy man who argues that she had no influence on the president's decision.

Telephone numbers are easily available when written, or typed, on a paper strip which is placed inside a cylinder on the front end of a base for the household telephone. Rolling the strip out at one end of the cylinder brings the desired number to where it easily is seen.

The color of beryl, from the highly prized emerald to orange-yellow and sapphire blue, is connected with crystal distortion in the mineral and not in its chemical content.

Women Want to Bolster Egos, Not Impress Men

The after-dinner conversation turned to mink coats. The men wanted to know why women are such fools for mink.

One by one the women tried to explain. But not one explanation was convincing as far as the men were concerned.

And little wonder because the great desire women have for mink coats can't be explained logically. The value of a mink coat is found in what it does to a woman's ego. And the reason it does so much for her ego is that it is a sign of success quickly recognized and enviously acknowledged by other women.

Feminine eyes turn toward the mink-coated woman as she enters a restaurant. Feminine interest is awakened in the newcomer at the party who trips in wearing a sleek expensive mink wrap.

SHE COMMANDS IMMEDIATE ATTENTION

And when a mink-coated woman walks into a store or shop she commands instant attention. Everybody figures she must be SOMEBODY, simply because she is wearing a mink coat.

That, in short, is why women set such store by mink.

And in a way it is an answer to the old, old question of whether women dress for men or to impress other women. In the case of mink, at least, they dress to impress other women.

A sweater will turn more masculine heads than the most expensive coat.

But nothing will turn feminine heads quicker than an obviously expensive mink coat.

Round-Robin 'Vetoes' Stalled Last WSB Steel Wage Hearings

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The inside story of how the Wage Stabilization Board arrived at its recommendations in the now-celebrated steel wage case will provide its main defense in the coming WSB investigation just voted by Congress.

The full record of the three-month steel wage case hearing and Wage Board deliberations far into the night fills many a volume of testimony. But the highlights of these proceedings on the principal issues shows how the job was tackled and why a majority of the 12 board members came to the decisions reached in their final recommendations.

In the first place, it is contended that the steel companies' representatives and the CIO steelworkers' union had done no real bargaining up to the time the case was given to WSB on Jan. 7. In passing the case to the board, many issues were included which were not just wage questions.

These were contract issues, such as the union shop, incentives, seniority and local working conditions. Yet all were just as important and just as controversial as the money questions.

WSB set up a special panel to hear all these points argued on their merits. Harry Shulman of Yale was chairman. Industry members were John Curry Bane, Jr., of Pittsburgh and Adm. Earl Mills of New York. Union members were Eli Oliver of the railway brotherhoods and Arnold Campo of the steelworkers.

WSB members agree this was as high class a panel as was ever assembled to handle any dispute case. It handled the case fast, completing hearings in New York Feb. 16. Then it reported to the full board, orally and in writing. Another month was required for the board's decision.

SIMILAR TO WORLD WAR II CASE

Incidentally, the comparable steel wage case in World War II took over a year to settle. It, too, was decided by an 8-to-4 vote, public and labor members approving, industry members disapproving.

The problem of WSB Chairman Nathan P. Feinsinger and the four public members in the present steel wage case was to reach fair and equitable recommendations by majority vote, since the actual bargain had been transferred to the board by labor and management.

This was illustrated when the union shop issue came up for consideration. The first three motions all failed. Labor-union representatives first moved that union shops be provided for. Public and industry members voted against it.

Industry members then moved that the union shop be referred back to the unions and the companies. Public and labor voted No.

Public members then moved that the issue be referred back to the unions and the companies, with the proviso that if no agreement could be reached by direct bargaining, the issue would come back to the board. Labor and industry members voted against that.

Public members then moved that the union shop be accepted in principle, but that the precise form should be worked out by the unions and the companies. This was to take into consideration the fact that there are different union shop formulas now in effect at such companies as General Motors, Crucible Steel and some railroads. The steel principals would have to work out a formula of their own. Public and labor members voted for that, and it carried.

FACTIONS COULDN'T AGREE ON INCREASE

On the wage issue, a great deal of time was devoted to a search for what each side would agree to, that a majority would accept. Labor proposed a straight 18½ cents an hour, across-the-board increase. Public and industry members voted No.

Industry members then voted a nine-cent increase, the nine cents to include all fringe increases. Public and labor voted No.

The final recommendation which public and labor members voted for was a 12½-cent increase now, two and one-half cents more July 1, another two and one-half cents Jan. 1, 1953, and no reopening of the contract for further wage adjustments till July 1, 1953—18 months away.

In the opinion of public members of WSB, this recommendation was within the area of its discretion under its rules. On cost of living increases alone, they claim that a 16-cents-an-hour increase would have been justified to cover price advances since Oct. 15, 1950. This was the index used in reaching agreement on the last steel wage contract which expired Dec. 31, 1951.

Industry members, however, claim that the cost of living increase should be only nine cents, going back to the index of Jan. 15, 1951.

Second and third shift increases of six and nine cents an hour, recommended by the WSB majority, are said to be under differentials as high as seven and one-half and 15 cents, in force in other industries.

Finally it is claimed by the board public members that this time the steel wage was not leading the parade in union labor rates. General Motors, for instance, has had three four-cent productivity increases which steelworkers do not get under the WSB recommendations. Rubber workers have also had increases which up to now have not been matched in the steel industry.

Voice Of The People

March 25, 1952

Dear Sir:

We have attended various meetings in Lee county since March 13 regarding the proposed $880,000 Lee County bridge bond issue to be voted upon at the primary election April 8.

The one thing which has been noted and which has been most outstanding is the fact that those in attendance have realized the definite need for a bridge replacement program in Lee county. Twenty-five of the proposed 28 bridges to be replaced are presently posted and have been posted for at least six years with five and eight ton load limit signs. The exceptions, however, namely the McRoberts crossing, the pump factory underpass, and the Eldena overhead, were included, as two of these structures as outmoded wooden bridges and the other is a narrow underpass. These three structures were not deemed adequate for present day vehicles.

The only real objection to the proposition, so far as we have been able to determine, is the fact that our present taxes will be increased, and there is certainly no one who will deny it. On the other hand, this bond issue differs from any other bond issue ever attempted in Lee county because it may mean the difference between saving a life or lives in Lee county, or it may mean destroying a life or lives in Lee county.

If the Lee county board of supervisors could have been assured that all 28 bridges in question would satisfactorily continue to withstand the excessive loads and volume of traffic which we have today, we are satisfied that this proposition would not be presented to the voters at this time.

As near as can be determined, the bridges planned to be replaced were practically all constructed prior to 1920, at least one having been constructed in 1904. Loads crossing these bridges today were unheard of in 1920. The present danger of one or more of these bridges failing is a 24-hour proposition every day that these posted bridges remain in service, and this election will determine whether or not the citizens of Lee county are satisfied to continue with the existing bridge conditions or whether they are in favor of replacing the antiquated bridges with modern structures capable of carrying modern-day vehicles.

For those who may be interested we urge you to attend our public meeting Friday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the board of supervisors room, Lee county court house, Dixon, for the purpose of discussing the proposed bond issue.

A. C. Higby,
Dixon Supervisor.

County Supt. Highways.

though mothers 35 and over bear only a small proportion of all the children, about one-fourth of all the deaths from childbirth come from this group. The possibilities of further improving the chances of the older mothers is a challenge.

Although infections of mothers are now rare, there are several unsolved causes of trouble, particularly the toxemias of pregnancy which still need to be conquered if childbirth is to be made entirely safe. Until this, too, can be mastered we must remain unsatisfied even though childbirth is already much safer than ever before.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE
Study This Hand for Sharp AnalysisBY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

One of the most interesting hands from this year's Vanderbilt Cup Tournament was played by Edith Seligman, one of the leading tournament players of recent years. Both bidding and play were models of correct analysis.

When North opened the bidding and then raised to two spades, Mrs. Seligman had her choice between a game and a slam. The question was whether North had minimum or maximum values for his two bids.

In order to find out, Mrs. Seligman bid a side suit, and gave North a chance to show his maximum with a jump to four spades. Now it was necessary only to check for aces with the Blackwood Convention before bidding the small slam.

West opened a diamond, and Mrs. Seligman now had to plan the play. If she tried to set up her own hand by ruffing several red cards in the dummy, she would have to get back a few times by ruffing clubs. If the club ruffs were going to be safe, the chances were that the clubs could be established.

Hence, Mrs. Seligman won the first trick in dummy with the ace of diamonds and immediately led the queen of clubs from dummy. East played the nine, a revealing card and declarer saw that East had either no more clubs left or only high clubs. In either case, the best plan was to ruff this trick.

Having ruffed the club, declarer led a heart to dummy's ace and returned another club. This time East played the king, and Mrs. Seligman ruffed again.

Now it was easy to draw three rounds of trumps, ending in dummy, and give up one club trick to West's ace. Dummy still had a trump as entry to the long clubs.

Q—The bidding has been:

North East South West
1 Spade Pass 2 Clubs Pass
2 Spades Pass ?
You, South, hold: Spade 2, Hearts 9-6-3, Diamonds J-10-5, Clubs A-K-Q-8-4. What do you do?

A—Bid three clubs. If your partner has a minimum opening bid, the combined hands will probably play better at three clubs than two spades. If he has enough strength to make a stab at three no-trump, you are perfectly willing to let him try for game.

and South still had the king of diamonds to take care of dummy's low diamond.

Since this hand was played in a team match, it was played at another table. There, declarer planned or a cross-ruff but got confused by defensive false-guards and ended by going down one trick.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:
Childbirth Safer Now With Medical Science Advances

It is safer to have a child now than ever before. The graveyards of even 75 years ago often carried pathetic markers saying "Died in Childbirth." Now, this is a rarity, thanks to the almost complete conquest of infection, improved methods of maternal care, better physician training, discovery of new drugs and education.

Progress has been great even in the last few years. In the early 1930's the campaign against preventable deaths from child-bearing was speeded up. The emphasis of this campaign was on complete care during the entire pregnancy and afterwards and against deaths which were known to be preventable.

The discovery of the sulfa drugs and penicillin only a few years back, so valuable for puerperal infections (child-bed fever), has, of course, helped enormously. Between 1939 and 1943 there was a larger reduction in deaths from puerperal septicemia (bloodstream infection) than from any other single cause. The rate was cut by more than half among white women. Also, the deaths from convulsions and other toxic conditions which occasionally occur in pregnancy were cut by one-third.

Among colored women progress was also substantial. The decline in maternal mortality among colored between 1939 and 1943 was 33 per cent against 40 per cent for white women.

BENEFITS ALL AGES

The benefits of recent improvements appear in all age groups, though the older mothers have not benefited (at least until recently) as much as the younger ones. Al-

Retail Prices Of Eggs Rise In Most Stores

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Retail prices of eggs and a long list of fresh vegetables were a little higher this week in most stores.

Hams and frying chickens were a couple of cents a pound lower in many places. Otherwise the overall level of meat prices was about unchanged, but a liberal sprinkling of rather sharp reductions to attract customers made this week look like a good one to do some extra shopping around in for meat bargains. Prices were off as much as 10 cents a pound on such popular cuts as leg of lamb, rib roast and sirloin steaks in scattered areas.

The advance in egg prices amounted to 2 to 4 cents.

Vegetables high in most produce departments included best quality green beans, beets, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, celery (especially golden heart), lettuce, onions, green peas and summer squash.

Asparagus, though still relatively high, was dropping and was being featured on many produce counters this week. Corn on the cob was more plentiful and cheaper, too.

Most fruits, including citrus, averaged a little higher but white-fleshed grapefruit, Florida Valencia oranges and California navelis were being heavily promoted by retailers.

A few coffee roasting firms trimmed their prices 1 to 1½ cents a pound this week, cancelling out an increase of the same amount made early this year.

Collection of Taxes in Six States Rise

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Collections from six major state taxes in March were up nearly 13 per cent over a year ago.

The state revenue department reported yesterday that most of the increase was due to the rise in the state gasoline tax, which yielded $7,080,234 last month compared with $4,625,778 in March, 1951.

Gas tax money is earmarked for road purposes.

Sales tax income, which supports general spending, totaled $14,993,719, up $363,915. Modest increases in revenue also were produced by cigarette, liquor and public utility taxes, and petroleum inspection fees.

House Okays $5 Million Illinois Food Control Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House yesterday passed a bill to provide nearly five million dollars for flood control and rivers and harbors work in Illinois.

The bill, which would allot $4,951,300 to Illinois, was passed without adding or subtracting a penny from recommendations of the House appropriations committee.

The bill, which now goes to the senate, would provide $492,434,800 for flood control and rivers and harbors work nationally. The measure is known as the army civil functions bill because most of the work would be carried out by the army corps of engineers.

The appropriations bill was cut $200,542,000, or 29 per cent, below President Truman's budget requests. Funds for Illinois projects were cut $643,900 by the house.

A proposed amendment by Rep. Simpson (R-Ill.) to add $2,976,000 for flood control at Beardstown, Ill., was defeated by the house.

Vatican Envoy Question Near House Showdown

WASHINGTON (AP)—House members moved warily today toward a showdown on the question of United States diplomatic representation at Vatican City.

The issue comes to a head in a $1,069,922,859 appropriation bill financing the state, justice and commerce departments for the 12 months starting July 1.

In the bill is a ban against use of state department funds to finance a diplomatic mission to the Pope's headquarters unless the first head of that mission is confirmed by the senate. The senate last year adjourned without acting on President Truman's last minute nomination of Gen. Mark Clark to be ambassador to the Vatican. The nomination was withdrawn at Clark's request.

Ancient Tomb

HONG KONG (AP)—Communist press dispatches from Canton report that a 1,640-year-old tomb has been unearthed in Hak Tsung, suburb of Canton.

The dispatches said the tomb belonged to the Chin dynasty and was in a good state of preservation. Nine earthen vessels were found inside the tomb.

Plan Opening Dance at Plum Hollow

Fun and Laughter Promised in April 17, 18 Production

It's fun and laughter for the whole family when "Accidentally Yours" is presented to the Dixon public from the stage of the Loveland Community house, April 17 and 18 by the Community Players. The story is about the Mosby family who believe that anything can happen and are unroariously dismayed when it does.

This three-act farce is light, gay entertainment. Misunderstandings are mingled with fantasy as the foundation for the play's hilarity. It all adds up to an evening of real entertainment.

Mrs. Omer Thomas, widely experienced in acting and directing, is the director of Dixon's presentation of "Accidentally Yours".

out the Midwest. She has also been active in dramatics here in Dixon, having directed "The Man Who Came to Dinner" for the Community Players and plays for the Girl Scouts and the Methodist church. Mrs. Thomas will be remembered for her exceptionally fine portrayal of Mary in the Methodist Christmas play this year, and especially for her outstanding performance in "Over 21."

Under the direction of Mrs. Thomas and with a fine cast of all experienced performers, "Accidentally Yours" promises to be a play its audience will long remember with pleasure.

Phidian Members And Guests Hear Esther Barton

Guest day was held at the meeting of the Phidian Art club Tuesday at Loveland Community House. Miss Esther Barton spoke on "Impressions of a Summer in Washington."

Tuesday's hostesses were: Mrs. A. Gordon Wilson, Mrs. S. W. Lehman, Mrs. A. H. Lancaster, Mrs. George Lindquist and Mrs. H. M. Rasch.

Mrs. Ralph Ferguson and Mrs. Stirling T. Stackhouse presided at the beautifully appointed tea table.

Wa-Tan-Ye Club Has Dinner, Meet Wednesday Night

Twenty-four members of the Wa-tan-ye club met at the Dead End Inn Wednesday evening. Following a six-thirty dinner, a business meeting was held.

President, Mrs. Howard Hall, asked the various committees to meet, and formulate plans for this year. These plans will be presented at a board meeting which will precede the April 16th club meeting.

The hostess committee for Wednesday night was Retta Jean Keathley, Nell Keithahan, Olive Reed and Louise Whitcomb.

Lee 4-H Foods Leaders at Oregon School

Thirteen leaders of 4-H foods clubs from Lee County attended a training school April 1, at Oregon.

4-H foods leaders in attendance included: Mrs. Ellis Rees, Mrs. Elliott Arnold, Mrs. Leslie Miller, Mrs. Ralph Long, Mrs. Henry Faber, Mrs. Edward Johnson, Mrs. Loren Hoge, Mrs. Bertha Dennis, Mrs. M. F. Gormerhan, Mrs. Edwin Currens, Mrs. Joseph Engelbrecht, Mrs. Clark Angier and Miss June Pilgrim, home adviser.

State 4-H (or foods) specialist Erma Cottingham, University of Illinois, discussed the food project plans for this year. Eight food project units are available to club members. These units are yeast breads, quick breads, cookies, shortened cakes, food preservation, use of fruits and vegetables, good things with milk and eggs, and outdoor meals.

During the training school, Miss Cottingham demonstrated the making of baking powder biscuits. She emphasized the use of quality ingredients, and the importance of accurate measuring, careful mixing and correct oven temperature. The specialist also demonstrated making cinnamon rolls and coffee cake using biscuit dough. Leaders were asked to score the demonstration technique used.

Good standards for food products were stressed by having leaders rate food prepared by the specialist. The leaders used the same type of rating sheet as will be used by club members in their work. Products rated included biscuits, salads and cooked eggs.

200 To Appear in Dixon High School Spring Concert

Friday Evening Show Features Selections by Soloists, Choir

April 4 is the date set for the annual spring choral concert to be presented at the Dixon high school auditorium under the direction of Miss Alexandria Psiris. Jean Randall, a sophomore, will be the accompanist.

The robed choir, the select voices of 50, will open the concert by singing, "Bene Jesus", "When Jesus Wept", "Cherubim Song No. 7" and "Let Us Break Bread Together."

A highlight of the program will be the meditation on the Lord's Prayer read by John Knelson followed by the robed choir singing "The Lord's Prayer."

Following a short intermission the robed choir will sing, "Charlotte", "Flow Gently Sweet Afton", an "Whiffenpoof Song." As a final number the combined choruses will sing "Alleluia."

Treble Clef
The Treble Clef composed of Nancy Leer, June Hansen, Mary Billeter, Faun Johnson, Sylvia Shuler, Carolyn Winder, Nancy Wolfe, Marilyn Plumb, Gerry Schenfeld, Judy Lafferty, Sandra Duke, Pat Pieschel, Juanita Stafford, Anne Lesage and Martha Whitmer will sing two selections, "Strange Music" and "Easter Parade."

Soloist, Marianna Metz, will sing "When Roses Bloom" and "The Roof Garden". Joyce Woodrow, a soprano soloist, will sing "Let My Song Fill Your Heart."

Mary Billeter and June Hansen are in charge of tickets. Nancy Leer is chairman of publicity and has the following people working with her: Jack Parkinson, Elaine Sharkey, Jane Kelly, Beverly Drew, Jan Noble and Joyce Sweeney.

Boys' Glee Club
The Boys' Glee club with Norman Stripes as student conductor will sing the following three numbers, "Halls of Ivy", "I Got Shoes" and "Stouthearted Men."

Manchester College Choir Will Appear Here Tuesday

The Manchester college a cappella choir under the direction of Clyde W. Holsinger will be presented by the Dixon Church of the Brethren at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 8.

The choir is a group organized in 1946, by Holsinger, who became choral director and instructor of voice at Manchester college in September, 1946. The choir has rapidly become recognized as one of the finer choral organizations in this area, and has been received with enthusiasm in its many performances both on and off campus. The choir has appeared in three symphony programs at Manchester, the last two by popular demand. It will begin its annual spring tour about April 4.

The group, which numbers 50 students, is the successor to the Madrigal club and the Chapel choir of former years. The choir's repertoire includes choral literature of many types specializing in unaccompanied masterpieces of both ancient and modern composers.

Amvet Auxiliary Hears 'Operation-Friendship' Plans

At the regular business meeting of the Amvets auxiliary Tuesday evening at the Amvet hall, it was announced that a District II meeting would be held Saturday, April 5, at Belvidere. This will be a meeting of both the Amvets and auxiliary, and any members who are able to attend are urged to do so.

A letter was read from the Jaycees in regard to their local Americanism program. A candidate was selected whose name and biographical sketch will be presented to the Jaycee Americanism committee.

A discussion was held and information read on "Operation-Friendship," a national Amvet-sponsored good will program to promote world friendship through an exchange of letters between children of America and abroad. The motivating key behind the letters is a rubber playball, designed like a world globe, which will be sent by American children to children overseas. This program has received and will receive in the future nation-wide publicity. These balls will cost approximately 25 cents each, including postage and mailing, and would contain the name and address of the child sending it. Further information will be available at a later date on this program which carries the slogan "Through Our Children the World Will Find Freedom."

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be April 15 and will be a dinner meeting at the Rainbow Inn. This is the monthly social meeting and those planning to attend are asked to call Virginia Strub, 4-5621, before Saturday, April 12, so reservations may be made.

In Kentucky
Mrs. W. D. Milliken and her niece, Miss Hazel Rust, have returned from a 12-day visit with relatives and friends in Bowling Green, Ky., and Danville and Clinton, Ill.

'Trends in Careers for Women' Topic at AAUW Recent Meet

"Trends in Careers for Women," was the theme of a panel discussion program presented before the American Association of University Women when the branch met at the Loveland Community house Monday evening. Representing different fields of occupation on the panel were: Miss Nell Hall, dietitian; Miss Agatha Tosney, industry; Mrs. Ralph Finnell, reporter, and Miss Evelyn Street of the American Cancer Society, who spoke of the volunteer services and agencies.

There are many varied lines open in the field of foods and nutrition, according to Miss Hall. Public health, Red Cross, state welfare departments, hotels, and the military services are a few of the agencies always looking for good, well-trained girls in the fields of food and nutrition. She feels that the work is interesting, worthwhile and often very challenging.

In Industry
Miss Tosney spoke of the many and varied opportunities in the field of industry. A high school education is required for many industrial jobs and there are many opportunities for advancement for those who really want to go on in their chosen work.

Each day is an education in the field of journalism and reporting, says Mrs. Ralph Finnell. A reporter gets to know all kinds of people and must gain their confidence in order to succeed.

While Miss Street is at present employed by the American Cancer Society she spoke more generally for all the agencies who make use of volunteer workers. The volunteer agency work is "as American as apple pie" and is a constant source of interest and amazement to foreigners whose workers in such fields are largely trained and professional people. About 75 per cent of the volunteer workers in the country are women and there is a tremendous power in the accumulative efforts of such workers. Much of the secret of the appeal to laymen volunteer workers lies in the statement, "I believe in the work and it makes me feel good inside." There are innumerable opportunities for volunteer workers in many varied agencies and also for trained, professional people who are needed to train, lead and direct such workers in their varying jobs.

Also in Program
Others participating in the panel were members of the Status of Women committee sponsoring the program: Miss Esther Barton, chairman, Mrs. E. W. Merrick, Miss Ruby Nattress and Mrs. Robert Shaw.

Elect Officers
In the business meeting which preceded the program Miss Cornelia Combar, president, presided. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Miss Cornelia Combar; 1st vice president, Miss Agatha Tosney; 2nd vice president, Miss Christine Bessmer; secretary, Miss Berclie Burkard, and treasurer, Miss Ruby Nattress.

The April meeting was announced when the Fellowship committee will present a Fellow from Norway who is doing advanced study in this country.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments being served by Mrs. G. W. Lindquist and her committee of hostesses.

Club Chorus

The Woman's club chorus will practice at 7:15 p.m. Friday instead of Thursday this week. Practice will be held at Loveland Community House.

In Grand Detour

Mrs. Willis D. Seaborn and daughter, Sally Lloyd, of Groese Point Woods, Mich., are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bond of Grand Detour. Mr. Seaborn will join them for the weekend before returning to Michigan. Mrs. Seaborn is a sister of Mrs. Bond.

He'll Get 64 Per Cent of Downstate Vote

Poll Reaches Into Every Section; Cook Co. Strong

(Editor's Note: Illinois takes the political spotlight next week with a primary election April 8. To see how sentiment is running, the Associated Press called on correspondents throughout the state for estimates reported in the survey below.)

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO, (AP) — Senator Taft will win the Illinois Republican presidential preference primary in the collective opinion of Illinois newspapers and correspondents surveyed by the Associated Press.

Gen. Eisenhower, in their composite opinion, will draw a sizeable write-in vote. His name is not on the ballot.

The downstate correspondents and political writers on Chicago newspapers submitted estimates on the vote each believed will be cast for the candidates in his district next Tuesday.

The survey reached into all sections of Illinois.

38 of 101
Opinions expressed in figures were received for 58 of the 101 downstate counties for Taft, Harold E. Stassen and Riley A. Bender; and for 55 counties Eisenhower and Gen. MacArthur. These downstate figures today added up to:

Taft 64.7 per cent; Eisenhower 18.3 per cent; Stassen 11.8 per cent; MacArthur 3.2 per cent; Bender 1.7 per cent.

Political writers on the four largest Chicago newspapers were asked to offer their calculations on Cook county (Chicago). Writers for three of them responded. The average of their Cook county figures for each candidate was:

Taft 70.3 per cent; Eisenhower 12.3 per cent; Stassen 9.6 per cent; Bender 5 per cent; MacArthur 2.6 per cent.

Only Taft, Stassen and Bender, a Chicago hotel man, are on the ballot. Votes for Eisenhower, MacArthur or any others will have write-ins.

Request Estimates
Requests for estimates were mailed last week to 88 downstate news sources—daily and weekly newspapers, two radio stations, veteran year around news correspondents in county seats and a few county clerks who are called on for election returns.

Responses came in by mail from 63 downstate counties. But five omitted figures of any kind, and

13 Dixon Scout First Aid Teams Win at Sterling

Thirteen Dixon Boy Scout first aid teams walked off with A ratings and a right to enter the Blackhawk area contest April 19 last night at the district contest in Sterling.

The Dixon teams had won a place in the Sterling meet following a city-wide contest here.

Eighty-three adults and 256 Scouts attended the contest at the Wallace grade school.

Local teams which won top ratings were: Crew 1, troop 685; Crew 2, troop 685; and patrols—Blackhawk, troop 93; Bird, troop 88; Cuckoo, troop 75; Blue Owl, troop 75; Rattlesnake, troop 85; Apache, troop 85; Racoon, troop 85; Flying Eagle, troop 85; Cobra, troop 93; Flying Eagle, troop 93; Cobra, troop 89; and Wolf, troop 89.

Grass Fire

Dixon's rural fire department was called to extinguish a grass fire yesterday on the land owned by C. B. Schwartz, Rt. 2, Dixon.

The fire was located one mile north of Rt. 30 on the pump factory road.

three omitted write-in figures. Correspondents in three counties—Greene, Wabash and Hamilton—said there is no blank space for write-ins on ballots in those counties.

The preference primary is a popularity contest. The 50 convention delegates who will be elected are not compelled to abide by the results.

30 Delegates
Taft has the support of the Illinois Republican organization. Thirty Taft delegates will be elected automatically. They have no opposition in their districts.

There are 90 Republican delegate candidates. Taft managers claim 67, and Eisenhower supporters 10. Two are for Sen. Dirksen (Ill.) and one is for MacArthur. The other 10 are undecided or unannounced.

Sen. Kefauver is alone on the Democratic presidential preference ballot and no survey of Democratic prospects was made.

Gov. Stevenson of Illinois, whose name is on every presidential handicapper's list although he says he's not seeking the top-of-the-national-ticket nomination, may receive a number of Democratic write-in votes.

Stevenson is on the ballot, unopposed, for renomination for governor. The comparative size of the Stevenson and Kefauver votes will be one of the interesting features of the election.

Amboy Widow Named Heir in $20,000 Will

Mrs. Elizabeth Burke, Rt. 1, Amboy, was named as the principal heir and also executrix of the $20,000 will of her husband, Daniel Burke, when it was filed for probate today before Judge Grover W. Gehant in county court.

Burke, who died Feb. 9, left $5,000 in personal property and $15,000 in real estate.

Eight children and grandchildren were also named in the will. They are to receive an equal share of the real estate upon the death of the widow.

They are: Mary Ellen Murray, Freeport; Joseph Burke, Rt. 2, Ohio; Margaret Friel, Rt. 2, Ohio; Sister Regina Rose Burke, Louisville, Ky.; Francis Burke, Rt. 1, Amboy; Daniel Burke, Rt. 1, Amboy; Elizabeth Ann Burke, Rt. 1, Amboy; and Edward Burke, Rt. 1, Amboy.

Hospital Aide Fined $20 for Wielding Knife

A 60-year-old Dixon State hospital attendant was fined $20 and costs yesterday by Police Magistrate Albert Kennedy after he had threatened Edward Taylor, 1006 W. Third st., with a "seven or eight inch knife" on a downtown street.

The attendant, Benjamin H. Starick, was arrested by Officers John Woodyatt and Robert McCoy on a complaint signed by Taylor. He was picked up at the corner of First street and Galena.

The knife, a button-spring blade type, was confiscated.

Sabre Pilots Bring March Score to 40

SEOUL, KOREA —(AP)—American Sabre pilots destroyed or damaged eight Red jets today bringing their score for the first three days of April to 40.

Today's toll was taken in three battles over northwest Korea, including history's longest jet fight. It lasted 45 minutes. Eighteen F-86 Sabre jets tangled with 60 Russian type jets in that battle, fought as the sun was setting.

The April mark is already more than a third of the total for the full month of March. Here is the score as reported by Far East air forces:

Today April March
Destroyed	2	15
Probably Destroyed	1	4
Damaged	5	21
Total	8	40

April Allied losses have not been announced. They are reported weekly.

A new jet ace, America's ninth, came out of today's actions. He is Capt. Robert H. Moore of Houston, Tex. He shot down his fifth MIG-15 on his 96th flight over Korea. He is scheduled to go home after four more combat missions.

Before the air war erupted in two jet battles Thursday morning, the Fifth Air Force announced Sabre pilots shot down two MIGs and damaged another in a twilight battle over northwest Korea Wednesday. Forty nine Sabres battled about 55 MIGs at 7:30 p.m.

Fifth Air Force fighter-bombers were out in record force Wednesday. Pilots flew 1,048 sorties, the highest number yet. They cut Red rail lines in a record 211 places.

Ground action Wednesday was highlighted by a heavy Communist artillery barrage, mostly on the Western front. An Eighth army briefing officer said the Reds fired 4,693 rounds.

Commission to Study Damage From Lake Rise

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A joint American-Canadian commission has agreed to hear congressional complaints that high water in the Great Lakes has caused "millions of dollars" damage.

The commission, authorized under a 1909 treaty between the U.S. and Canada to regulate boundary waters, said yesterday it will discuss the matter informally tomorrow with 13 House Republicans from states bordering the Great Lakes.

The commission told the congressmen, who asked for the hearing, that it will not be able to recommend remedial action until the matter is referred to it by either the federal or Canadian government.

Woman, 74, Ends Search for Lover

LONDON —(AP)—Sadie Brooks, a sprightly, 74-year-old widow from Canada, today gave up her search for the boy friend of her youth and hoped her 12 children don't hear too many tales about her hunt for an old romance.

Sadie searched in vain through her old neighborhood in the London suburb of Ealing and up in Birmingham. She knocked on doors, asking people if they knew Tom Mitchell. No one did.

Tom was her sweetheart at the turn of the century. But Sadie left for Canada, married and raised a family in Oshawa, near Toronto. "I have 12 children, I guess," she said. "Some are mine and the rest are adopted. It wouldn't do for them to hear what I've been up to in England."

The only Londoner who thought he remembered Tom believed he died two years ago.

Sadie said "It's been fun" and now she's ready to go back home.

Senate Gives Approval to Tideland Bill

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The senate yesterday approved the controversial tidelands bill giving states, instead of the federal government, clear title to oil-rich lands in their coastal areas.

The house has passed a somewhat similar bill, but the measure is still far from becoming law. First, differences between the senate and house bills must be ironed out. Lawmakers do not believe this will be difficult.

The finally approved bill then goes to President Truman, who vetoed a similar measure in 1946 and may veto the new one.

Following the 50 to 35 senate rollcall vote yesterday, senators expressed conflicting opinions whether the legislation could be passed by the required two-thirds majority over the anticipated veto.

State's Ownership
The senate measure gives the states outright ownership to the lands beneath the marginal seas for a distance of three miles out from their shores, except in the cases of Texas and Florida, where the distance is 10½ miles because of conditions under which they were admitted as states.

The house bill not only gives the states title to the marginal belt, but provides also that the states should receive 37½ per cent of all revenues from oil and gas developments in the continental shelf, out beyond the state seaward boundaries.

The supreme court has ruled that the federal government has paramount rights to submerged coastal areas. However, if congress passes a law saying the states own such areas, the court ruling would not apply.

Claims Official At Fault in West Frankfort Tragedy

GALESBURG, Ill. —(AP)—A Chicago candidate for the Republican nomination for attorney general blames the West Frankfort coal mine disaster on the state director of mines and minerals.

In a campaign speech, J. Roy Browning last night said the explosion which cost 120 lives last Dec. 21 was the result of Mine Director Walter Eadie's failure to enforce state mine laws.

Browning is a former vice president of the Illinois Coal Operations association.

Three Colleges in Illinois Receive New Scholarships

NEW YORK —(AP)—Three Illinois universities are among 11 schools which are recipients of fellowships endowed by the United States Rubber Co.

The company yesterday announced a new and expanded five-year program of financial aid to science students. Under the new plan, the stipend for single students is increased from $2,200 to $2,600, and for married students from $2,800 to $3,300.

The Illinois schools are the University of Chicago, Northwestern University and the University of Illinois.

GOP Can Win In November, Says Stratton

SPRINGFIELD, (AP)—William G. Stratton, seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination, said last night that the GOP can win the Illinois governorship in November.

Stratton, who is the present state treasurer, scoffed at claims that the state administration of Governor Stevenson "is unbeatable." He spoke at a major campaign rally.

"It has become increasingly apparent in recent weeks that Illinois' present governor is Truman's man," he said. "In fact, Harry Truman hasn't missed a chance to tout him as 'qualified for president.'"

"Well, it's easy to see why Truman should think so. He probably is qualified by Truman's standards. Certainly there is a lot of similarity between this administration in Springfield and Truman's scandal-ridden administration in Washington."

Stratton said Stevenson has "spent much of his adult life on the public payroll, under both presidents Roosevelt and Truman."

He said it was healthy that Republicans have a contest for each statewide office at stake in November, declaring that on the other hand Democrats picked a slate to offer voters on a take-it-or-leave-it basis.

Cutting Waste Will Improve Army, Claim

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The chairman of a house "watchdog" subcommittee says a 10 per cent cut in the $2 billion dollar military budget actually will improve the nation's combat strength by tightening up waste and duplication.

Rep. Bonner (D-NC) said in testimony released yesterday that five billion dollars could be cut from the new military budget "without even drawing blood."

Testifying before a house appropriations committee, he urged that the use of enlisted men as domestic servants for high ranking officers should be stopped.

One example of waste, he said, was the building of $22,000 army houses on Okinawa. A commercial company, on the other hand, erected "adequate" homes alongside the army houses for about $8,600 each.

Says Vets Aren't Told About Rights

PEORIA, Ill. —(AP)—An American Legion official says Korean War veterans aren't getting full information on benefits available to them.

He said some separation centers "aren't even making an attempt" to tell the veterans about benefits under the GI Bill of Rights.

L. R. Benston, Illinois rehabilitation director for the Legion, said last night this is mainly due to the Veterans Administration's lack of funds to send counselors to separation centers.

He spoke at a meeting of Veterans' organizations.

South Beloit Legion Loses Title, 69-63

Reisser Produces 32 Points to Help Bring Revenge Win

ROCKFORD — (Special) — It was revenge night for the Mt. Morris Kable Kolts here Wednesday as they dumped South Beloit Legion, 69-63, to win the Bi-State basketball tourney in White Eagles' gym.

Last season South Beloit won the top prize and the Kolts had to be satisfied with second place.

Biggest single cog in the Kolts victory Wednesday, their second in two nights to sweep the best of three playoffs, was Babe Reisser, former Northern Illinois State college center.

Reisser flipped 32 points into the nets on 13 baskets and six free throws to lead all scoring. Beloit was led by Ray Whitlow, who scored 22 points.

Reisser had good aid from Del Miller, who counted 11 points, and from Earl (June) Hanke, who scored 10 points in his best post-season scoring effort since his last game with the Mt. Morris high school "Whiz Kids."

Stanky's Happy

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — An optimistic Eddie Stanky herded his St. Louis Cardinals off on a homeward exhibition trip today, firm in his belief the Cards could win the National league pennant this season.

Mgr. Stanky still is without an opening day lineup. But with Al (Red) Schoendienst temporarily sidelined with a fractured finger, he figures it's better than a 50-50 chance he'll be playing at second base.

Browns vs. Sox

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — The St. Louis Browns take another crack at the Chicago White Sox today.

The two clubs haven't squared off on the field since leaving their California training camps for the return trip east. The game is at San Antonio.

The Browns dropped their last exhibition contest with the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday, 5-2. Five Brownie errors—the worst fielding day of the spring—coupled with Pittsburgh pitching that allowed just three hits did the trick.

Get-Tough Policy Proposed Against Evils of Sports

CHICAGO — (AP) — The North Central association of colleges and secondary schools has proposed a get-tough policy against athletic recruiting.

Offenders would be stripped from the group's accredited list. The association's action at the start of its annual meeting yesterday was the first offered by an accrediting group in support of the American Council on Education's proposed rigid sports control program.

The North Central, agency for 19 states from West Virginia to Wyoming, avoided action on the A. C. E.'s suggested ban on out-of-season football practice and bowl games.

"Those things will take care of themselves if we clean up the evils of recruiting, proselytizing and over-emphasis of athletics on the campuses," said J. B. Edmonson, University of Michigan, chairman of the group's committee on athletics.

The North Central program would eliminate "snap courses" for athletes, athletic scholarships, over-emphasis on winning, and hiring of high-salaried coaches whose sole job is to produce winning teams.

EVANSTON, (AP) — Jack Burmaster, University of Illinois basketball star four years ago, has been named cage coach at Evanston township high school.

Burmaster, 21, succeeded Rocky Hampton who retired after a 24 year tenure.

After graduating from Illinois, Burmaster played three years as a pro with Oshkosh and Sheboygan, Wis. Then he took the basketball coaching post at Dupont Manual high in Louisville where his team last season had a 33-2 record.

NAMED AT LEWIS

LOCKPORT, (AP) — Gordon A. Gillespie, 25, for two years basketball coach at Joliet Catholic high school, has been appointed head mentor at Lewis college.

During the last six months, Gillespie has been devoting part time to coaching the Lewis college team.

Favorites Win In Trans-Miss

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (AP) — Second round competition in the Trans-Mississippi women's amateur golf tournament today included at least three matches between players considered good enough to go all the way to the title.

The three: Defending Champion Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore against Mrs. Lyle Bowman of Richmond, Calif., former Oregon state champion, Grace De Moss of Corvallis, Ore., runner-up for the Trans-Miss championship in 1950, against Barbara (Bobby) Dawson of Piedmont, Calif.

Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Calif., newly crowned North-South amateur champ, against Mrs. John Holt of Longview, Wash.

Sharing attention with these three were battles between Marjorie Lindsay of Deatur, Ill., 1950 Trans-Miss title winner and Curtis Cup player, and Mrs. Jack Kennedy of St. Louis.

Smith Dreams Of Title Shot After Victory

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Gene Smith, a hard-hitting Washington featherweight, today looked toward a possible crack at a title bout and the pot of gold that goes with it.

The 26-year-old Negro last night racked up his 30th straight win in pro boxing with a hairline decision over Glen Flanagan, rated fourth in the division by the National Boxing Association.

Smith weighed 128, Flanagan 129.

It was a tough one for Smith all the way in the furious 10 round bout witnessed by 4,000 fans at Uline Arena. It was so close that one of the judges called the bout a draw. Another judge and the referee cast the votes that gave Smith the nod.

Shoot 3,000 To Grab Top Team Position

MILWAUKEE — (AP) — A blazing last frame strike finish gave the King Louis Shirts of Chicago a 3,000 series and the lead in the regular team event of the American Bowling Congress tournament last night before a record 5,123 fans.

The Chicagoans, paced by national match game champion Junie McMahon's 627, opened with 946, came back with 1,015 and wound up with 1,039.

Come to Life

They had only a fair last game until the last frame when they suddenly came to life. Ed Kawolics, the leadoff man, struck all the way out for 190. Ed Brosius repeated the performance for 222.

Harry Lippe, working on three in a row carried his first one and added 213. McMahon got two big ones for 201 and Paul Krumske picked up one strike, left one pin and converted for 213.

Totals were Kawolics, 606; Brosius, 611; Lippe, 582; McMahon 627 and Krumske, 574.

Have Three Errors

The Chicago team, which holds a 1,000 average, had only three errors, two by Kawolics and one by McMahon. McMahon had only three balls out of the pocket all night. McMahon, who holds a record 10-year average of 207.1 in ABC competition, and his Chicago mates compete in doubles and singles this afternoon.

Firing in the doubles and singles yesterday was light, with only one change in the standings.

This came in the all events in which Sam Sanderson, Hammond, Ind., posted 1,841 for eighth place.

Knicks Surprise Syracuse in NBA Playoff Action

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — (AP) — The New York Knickerbockers are off and winning in their semi-final playoff series with the Syracuse Nats in the National Basketball association.

The underdog Knicks, surprise victors over Boston in the first round of the playoffs, stunned the Nats last night with an 87-85 victory in the first game of their best-of-five series.

After the second game tonight the series shifts to New York.

With Max Zaslofsky and Connie Simmons tossing in 26 and 24 points, the New Yorkers came from 12 points behind in the second quarter to take an equally big lead with five minutes left.

The Nats delighted the crowd of 7,049 by rallying to 85-83 with a minute left. Free throws by Zaslofsky and George Kaftan sewed up the triumph with 31 seconds left.

Dolph Schayes rimmed 25 points for the losers.

TULSA WINS TROPHY

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — The University of Tulsa finally broke OklahomaA & M's grasp on the Missouri Valley conference all-sports trophy this season, winning the cup by a scant 37.5-point margin over the Aggies.

Giants Crippled by Loss of Irvin

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By WARREN PAGE
NEA Shooting Editor

The numbers .222 on the latest varmint cartridge don't mean a thing. Nowhere on the cartridge, its bullet, or the gun that fires it is there a significant measurement of 222 thousandths of an inch.

But the new little vermin-popper, which is a true .22 in that it drives a bullet .224 inches in diameter through a barrel .219 inches across the lands, certainly has come to mean plenty of shooters the country over. I doubt that any cartridge has caught the rifleman's fancy so quickly. Perhaps the figures should stand for "It's too, too, too good to be true."

I first met the little .222 before the public heard of it. With the designer from the Remington plant who had nursed the idea along, we tried the only two rifles then built for it, hunting woodchucks in upper New York state.

We popped the clover-chewers at 100 yards, at 200, even at 300; and the farmers whose fields were being cut up by the chucks were pleased. But the first bullets and their velocity at that time didn't quite please us, so back the .22 went into the laboratory for a final revamping before it was turned over to shooters as a varmint load whose 50-grain bullet sails along at 3200 feet per second.

That makes the youngster fastest of all the .22 centerfires except the .220 Swift, top speedster. It's called a .250-yard varmint cartridge. That is, a moderately expert rifleman should surely get rid of the chuck at 250 yards. If the rifle has been targeted so its shots center 1 1/2 inches high at 100 yards it will strike dead on at 200, and only about 4 inches low at 250, which is flat shooting.

With its light report, the newest vermin load is as well suited to shooting in semi-settled areas as the .22 Hornet. It carries its destruction to vermin considerably further, with ample speed so that the bullet will not bounce or ricochet off even pasture land. It is very little more expensive to shoot than the Hornet, or the Bee, either of which it will beat all hollow for either accuracy or range. Handloaders can cook up a dosage of 20-21 grains of DuPont 4198 powder with 55-grain bullets, velocity also about 3200, that is bad medicine even for foxes or coyotes.

Year-round shooting is important to conservation. The varmint-trained rifleman, used to taking his shot calmly, steady in his holding and keen in his judgment of range, is not going to wound and lose larger game animals such as deer.

The big-game hunter cannot be sure of his sheep at 300 yards—and is not even a sportsman to shoot at all—if he is one of those who put their rifles away in December and leave them closeted until October rolls around again. A cartridge like the .222 is the answer for off-season shooting.

Breaks Ankle In Exhibition Game Slide

Other Teams Hit As Ted Williams, Coleman Pass Tests

By RALPH RODEN
A. P. Sports Writer

The 1952 World Series opponents may have been determined on April 2—two weeks before the official opening of the season.

Three teams, the New York Giants, Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees received severe jolts in their pennant ambitions yesterday while the hopes of a fourth, the Philadelphia Phillies, were boosted.

Here's what happened:

1. Monte Irvin, left fielder of the champion Giants and National league runs batted in king of 1951, broke his right ankle in an exhibition game against Cleveland at Denver, Colo.

Williams Accepted

2. Ted Williams, star slugger and left fielder of the Red Sox passed his physical examination at Jacksonville, Fla., and will report for active duty with the marine air corps on May 2.

3. Jerry Coleman, infielder of the Yankees, also passed his physical examination at Jacksonville, Fla., and will return to duty with the marine air corps also on May 2.

4. Curt Simmons, crack left-handed pitcher of the Phillies, will be discharged as a sergeant of the 28th Infantry division. He will return to the United States from Germany within 10 days.

Irvin was injured in the second inning in a game Cleveland won 5-0. He walked to lead off the frame and zipped around second as army bound Willie Mays singled to right field.

Cleveland shortstop Ray Boone cut off the throw from the outfield and hung Mays up between first and second but Irvin slid into third anyway. He suffered a compound fracture of his right ankle.

Starred in Series

Irvin batted .312 last year and led the league in runs batted in with 121. He also starred in the World Series against the Yankees, batting .458.

Irvin's loss probably means that

Campanella Hits

MOBILE, Ala., (AP)—Roy Campanella, husky catcher of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is socking Grapefruit league pitching at a wicked clip. Campanella, the National league's most valuable player in 1951, has hit safely in his last 12 games. He has pounded out 27 hits including 13 doubles.

Bob Thomson will forsake third base for his first love, the outfield. Hank Thompson, a disappointment last year, figures to return to third. The situation is further complicated by the expected induction of Mays.

The injury was the fourth serious one of the spring. Previously infielder Billy Martin of the Yankees and third baseman Vern Benson of the St. Louis Cardinals broke their legs. Bob Slaybaugh, a rookie Card pitcher, faces the loss of an eye. Slaybaugh was struck in the face by a batted ball in batting practice.

Williams, highest salaried player in the game, and Coleman are in for 17 months. For Williams, this probably means the end of his brilliant career. He will be 35 when this second tour of duty is completed.

Pair to Alternate

Red Sox Mgr. Lou Boudreau indicated in Houston, Tex., that Don Lenhardt and Clyde Vollmer probably would alternate the left field job.

Gil McDougald probably will take over second base for the Yankees instead of switching between second and third. Rookie Andy Carey apparently will man third.

The return of Simmons greatly enhances the stock of the Phils. Simmons is in shape and should be ready to pitch shortly after the bell rings. In Simmons and Robin Roberts the Phils have two potential 20 game winners.

Cubs Win Again

In exhibition games yesterday the Cincinnati Reds nosed out the Washington Senators, 4-3, Brooklyn trounced the Yankees, 11-1, the Red Sox smeared Houston of the Texas League, 13-2, the Phils defeated the Boston Braves, 3-1, the Chicago Cubs beat the Brooke Medical Center, 3-1, the Pittsburgh Pirates turned back the St. Louis Browns, 5-2.

In night games the Chicago White Sox downed Austin of the Big State league, 5-0, the White Sox "B" squad defeated Dallas of the Texas league, 4-2 and the Philadelphia Athletics nipped their Savannah Sally league farm hands, 7-6.

CUBS SEEK SEVENTH STRAIGHT

Sox Worrying About Carrasquel's Extra Weight

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs, sporting a six game winning streak, today open a string of four straight games with the struggling Pittsburgh Pirates. Bob Kelly has been assigned as the Cubs first starter against the Bucs.

The Cubs registered their 17th triumph in 25 games yesterday with a 3-1 decision over the Brooke

Army Medical Center in Fort Sam Houston. The winning blow was a two-run homer by outfielder Bob Addis, his first of the spring.

CHICO'S OVERWEIGHT

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—As if the Chicago White Sox haven't got enough problems this spring, now comes the weight problem of shortstop Chico Carrasquel. The flashy shortstop has picked up quite a few extra pounds which have seemed to help his hitting but retarded his fielding. He has not been getting to balls he would have handled handily a year ago. "Of course the weather this spring hasn't been ideal for shedding weight," says Mgr. Paul Richards. "If we get hot weather in Texas, Louisiana and Georgia, Chico probably will trim down enough to regain his speed. Otherwise he's going on a diet."

Atty. Gen. McGrath, Morris Have Ability to Get Into Jams

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Newbold Morris and J. Howard McGrath—the president's two top investigators whose own conduct has been investigated by congress—have not much in common except years in politics and an ability to get into jams.

Although Attorney General McGrath's Justice department ordinarily would be the chief investigator of government corruption, the Truman administration seemed to think it necessary to bring in an outsider.

After several better-known men had turned down the job McGrath suggested Morris and President Truman appointed him special assistant to McGrath. At once Morris announced he'd start off investigating McGrath's department.

Interesting This in itself was interesting but not any more so than Morris' performance when he went before a senate committee which wanted to quiz him about his law firm's connection with a ship deal.

Morris insulted the senators. You could almost hear them count to 10 to keep their tempers. What they said about him—something about over-emotional—was mild compared with what they did to him. They refused to let him have the subpoena power President Truman asked for him.

Still, he tried to operate. He called a news conference and announced he was sending a long questionnaire to McGrath and the key men in the Justice department.

ment, demanding intimate information about their financial affairs.

McGrath Testifies This week McGrath went before a House Judiciary subcommittee which is eager to check on the Justice department itself and wants a look at McGrath's income tax returns.

While McGrath and the congressmen are battling the ball around he said he (1) not only hadn't filled out Morris' questionnaire but didn't know whether he would; (2) hadn't distributed it to the other Justice department people; and (3) wouldn't have recommended Morris as investigator if he had it to do over again.

Here was a double-play the like of which the president hasn't been mixed up in since he's been in the White House. Could he uphold McGrath and let Morris go? And if he did, how would that look in this political year when Truman knows corruption in government will be a campaign issue?

Second Hot-Spot This was the second hot-spot for McGrath within a few months. When the income tax scandals broke President Truman stepped in over McGrath's head and fired his assistant, T. Lamar Caudle.

When a House committee asked him about Caudle and other affairs in his department McGrath revealed that he didn't know much of what was happening in his own department. At that time the president was reported, on good authority, to be ready to sack McGrath but changed his mind.

Freak Ice Berg Destroys Boats on Michigan Shore

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., (AP)—A freakish southwest wind yesterday launched by land an "ice berg" which caused havoc for 20 minutes across the east arm of Grand Traverse bay.

The "ice berg" was a phenomenon of the spring breakup. It clipped down trees like a giant mower, ground docks to pieces and destroyed boats and other objects in its path.

A sudden shift of the wind saved the home of Edward Larkin. When the mass of ice stopped, piles of ice were window high. Afterwards, the ice moved out into the bay and the danger appeared over.

Delay Aussie TV

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—Australia has postponed indefinitely plans to set up an experimental television station near Sydney.

The decision was made by the Cabinet because of the need to cut imports, according to an announcement by Postmaster General Hubert L. Anthony.

During Elizabethan times, the tender young leaves of mock orange, which have a cucumber flavor, were used as salad greens.

Four Perish As Blaze Sweeps Flat

CHICAGO, (AP)—Four persons, including a baby-sitting grandmother and her grandson, perished in a fast-spreading fire which destroyed a 12-flat, four story apartment building last night.

Eight other persons, including six firemen, were injured. About 30 persons fled or were carried by firemen from the structure. The building is at the busy intersection of Milwaukee and North avenues.

Fire officials said the blaze, of undetermined origin, apparently started in the basement. It spread upward and to the rear porches on which were oil storage tanks. The intense heat exploded the tanks, which contained fuel for oil burners used to heat the 12 flats.

Fire officials estimated damage at $50,000. All of the victims were trapped by the flames which engulfed the rear apartments of the building.

Lujack Quits Pro Football

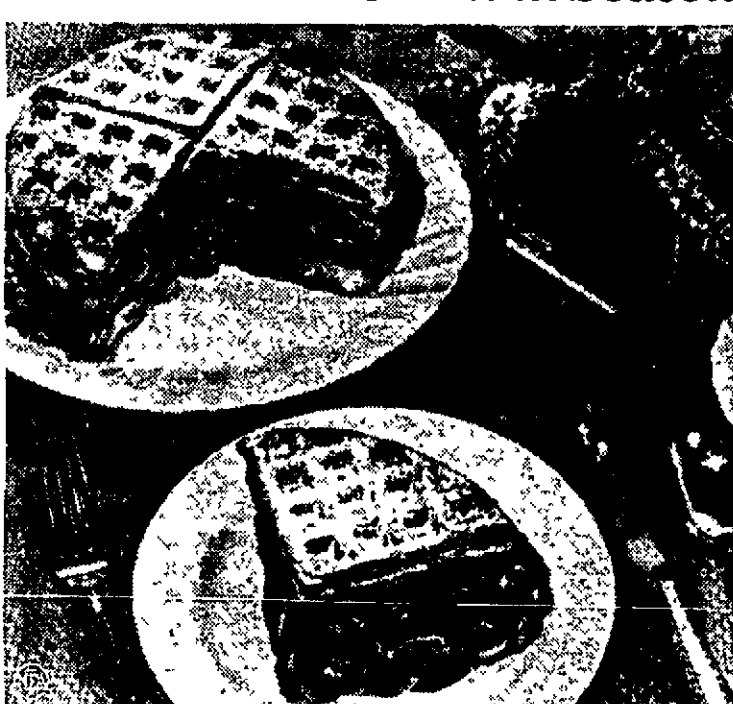

CHICAGO—(AP)—Quarterback Johnny Lujack of the Chicago Bears today announced his retirement from pro football after a conference with club owner-coach George Halas.

Lujack's four-year contract with the Bears, calling for a reported $20,000 annually, expired at the end of the 1951 season.

It recently was rumored Lujack would join the football coaching staff at his alma mater Notre Dame. Today, Lujack said he could no longer concentrate on pro football and "keep up with my insurance business."

The word "priest" is a contracted form of "presbyter."

Booze on a Cruise Not Legal: Judge

LONDON—(AP)—The old British custom of cruising for a boozing reeled from a legal torpedo today.

A judge in Liverpool has held that drinking hours afloat must conform with those of saloons ashore. He says this applies to all craft in coastal or inland waters.

Thus a tot on a yacht, a sherry on a ferry or a snort in port is not outlawed, except for a piddling three and a half hours in midday and five hours at night (11:30 a. m. to 3 p. m. and 6 p. m. to 11 p. m.)

For fifteen and a half hours daily it will be a misdemeanor to hold a brawl on a yawl or even sniff a sauterne on a severn.

A spokesman for the state-owned railways said the ruling might even cover the bars on trains. These now serve liquor as long as they are in motion.

"The tourist trade isn't going to like this," he warned.

The decision which roughened the waters was handed down yesterday by Magistrate A. J. McFarland. He fined two stewards on a cruise vessel 40 pounds ($112) for serving drinks in the harbor outside pub opening hours.

Senators Cry Over Spilled Beer in Debate

BOSTON, (AP)—The Massachusetts senate cried over spilled beer for an hour yesterday, but didn't do anything about it.

Up for action was a bill to forbid drinking of beer or other alcoholic beverages in the seating areas at sporting events.

The debate waxed long and furious, but the bill was rejected by a roll call vote of 19 to 9.

Sen. John F. Collins (D-Boston) said spectators at ball games were fed up with having beer spilled on them while they were watching games.

Caught up in the stream of pilgrims, the four curious boys were swept through Jerusalem's gates. The current deposited them in a market place where vendors of shimmering silks, fragrant spices, sparkling wines and oils, squatted cross-legged.

But where was Barabbas being held? Sakron asked a wrinkled wineseller. 'In the palace prison,' whispered the vendor. Down Jerusalem's twisting streets sped the boys.

A full-throated clamor swelled out of a side street. Sakron surrendered to his curiosity, shouting, 'Come, let's look.' A procession of soldiers led a white-robed prisoner, 'Jesus of Nazareth!' cried a voice above the din of the rabble.

Dutch Fight to Save Guilder Success; Foreign Trade Hiked

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK — (AP) — Queen Juliana if she wishes can tell President Truman today how the Dutch plan to save the guilder is blooming.

The plan is something like Prime Minister Churchill's drive to save the pound. The Dutch started their plan a year earlier than did the British.

And in recent days there is evidence that the British plan is also bearing fruit. The pound sterling is developing strength, if slowly. American exporters, meanwhile, say that they are starting to feel sharply the recent moves by foreign countries to reduce imports from the dollar area.

Clamp on Imports
Whether they're out to save the pound, the guilder, the franc or the peso, other countries usually start by tightening the curbs on their nationals' importing American goods and thus draining their country's reserves of U.S. dollars and gold.

The Netherlands was running far behind in its trade relations with its neighbors before the government started its drive a year ago to halt inflation at home and increase Dutch exports. But now it has turned this deficit of trade with its European neighbors into a surplus. The Dutch say they are now in a more favorable position in international trade than they have been for several years.

The Dutch reserves of gold and foreign exchange have been climbing and Dutch exporters are driving for new markets in Latin America. Many of these Dutch manufacturing projects are aided by American investors.

Churchill Stops Slide
The British financial situation continued to slide until last month, when the Churchill government took severe steps to curb inflation, to balance the budget, to cut imports and boost exports.

Britain still has a long way to go yet, the National City Bank of New York points out today in its April letter. "Only by demonstrating its ability to live within its means can British restore confidence in the pound sterling and retain its position as an international banker and trader," the bank says.

Further curbs by the British on imports, however, are being felt in this country, according to foreign traders attending a conference of the Foreign Credit Interchange Bureau here. They say their business is being hurt by the worldwide tendency to restrict exchange, and limit dollar goods imports to essential items. Some insist there are more dollars and gold available in Europe than the other countries are admitting.

Want Workers

MOSCOW, (AP)—The Central Committee of the Communist party believes that women should be boldly advanced to executive work in all phases of national life.

Women are found in all kind of jobs in the Soviet Union from captains on ocean-going ships to high posts in the Communist party. Government statistics showed 830,000 women specialists graduated from higher educational institutions, over one million studying in high and secondary educational institutions and 207,000 women doctors. Forty per cent of the agronomists are women.

School for Lazy Men Has Britain's Commons Puzzled

LONDON — (AP) — A government school for lazy men—it teaches Britain's habitual unemployed how to work and like it—set the house of commons wondering today.

The school is situated in the pleasant hills of Worcestershire. Its head man is a Scotsman, Hamilton Douglas, who told newsmen the nine-month-old project is designed to prod lazy men off relief. Douglas explained the men all volunteered—after their local relief boards suggested they'd better learn to work or face prosecution. He has 20 pupils now.

He said the school doesn't plunge the lazy, deep into work all at once. They learn in easy stages—first domestic chores around the school, then gardening and finally, a job in a nearby factory.

The first pay check is the diploma.

In Holland, jackets are supplied to cows to protect them from the cold and damp wintry weather.

One inch of rain over one acre of land amounts to 6,272,810 cubic inches of water.

Fish Shortage

SAN PEDRO, Calif., (AP)—Mackerel catches along the Pacific Coast are the lowest since 1932, the California Department of Fish and Game reported. The season, which usually runs from late May until after Christmas, ended last November. There just weren't enough mackerel, biologists report.

Since the late '30s, the supply has not filled market demands. Department specialists believe a seasonal bag limit should be established.

Queen Juliana Urges Congress Not to Over-Stress Defenses So That Cultural Life Suffers

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Queen Juliana of The Netherlands today urged congress not to imitate Iron Curtain countries which place so much emphasis on defense that economic, social and cultural well-being suffer.

She also said in a speech prepared for delivery before a joint session of congress less than 24 hours after her arrival yesterday:

1. The United States can count upon Netherlands support in the present divided world.

2. Her country, with the help of America, is able to "stand once more on our own feet" economically. She expressed thanks for the aid given.

3. She said European unity is growing and that "political integration" may come "perhaps eventually."

4. The world is split into two parts, the positive (democracy) and negative (slavery), and the negative pole will "have to yield" in time.

Major emphasis of the queen's address, which she delivered in English, was on technical assistance. She said her country was helping to the best of its ability by exporting skills and experts to less developed countries.

Hopes for Conversion
"It is my earnest hope that one memorable day the enormous increase of production now demanded by rearmament will be converted to meet the needs of these enormous development projects."

"The circle of countries around the North Atlantic ocean should avoid imitating the example set by the countries behind the Iron Curtain, which have focused their minds so much on their defense, that they forget to focus as much attention on their economic, social and cultural well-being."

"If they do neglect these aspects, some day they might find themselves isolated around their ocean before, for instance, technical assistance could get under way properly, and link them with the world at large."

Must Trust U.S.

She ended by saying: "Mankind in its distress has to trust largely to your good judgment for its deliverance."

The speech was part of a fast-paced program that includes shaking thousands of hands at three receptions and donning a diamond tiara tonight for a formal dinner party.

The queen and her husband, Prince Bernhard, are the first guests in the newly rebuilt White House. The President and Mrs. Truman moved back in only last Thursday after having lived across Pennsylvania avenue at Blair house for three years.

Held in Hotel
The White House staff, which includes many newcomers, was not ready to tackle the rigors of a formal state dinner last night, so it was held at the Carlton hotel. About 50 guests were invited to the dinner, given by the President and Mrs. Truman.

Truman told his guests that "we have with us what I like to refer to as the fairy queen. We had the fairy princess with us the time before—before she became Queen of England."

He referred to the visit last November of Queen Elizabeth II, then Princess Elizabeth.

Juliana told her host "You head a great country of very human and kind-hearted people, who gave us invaluable support during and after the war."

Processes Rubber

SINGAPORE (AP) — Indonesia is bypassing Singapore in offering processed natural rubber to the markets of the world.

The flow of unprocessed rubber which keeps alive the remitting industry in Singapore, is gradually drying up and threatening the industry with extinction. Five of 11 major rubber milling factories have already closed, throwing thousands out of jobs.

Rubber men here say the Indonesians have been trying to set up rubber smoking plants of their own to process unfinished rubber. Thousands of rubber milling machines have been shipped to Indonesia during the past year to equip new plants.

Ask Chair For Slayer Of Attorney

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (AP)—A criminal court jury early today convicted Roy Tarrence, 45, of murdering Francis J. McCormack and fixed his punishment at death in the electric chair.

The all-male jury returned its verdict shortly before 5 a. m. after deliberating since 10:45 o'clock last night.

Tarrence, a distillery worker from nearby Jeffersontown, heard the verdict with little show of emotion and tried to calm his wife, who became hysterical when the verdict was read. She was led from the courtroom by a son, Evert, who is home from the navy.

Another son, Leonard, 22, also is charged with murder in McCormack's death and will be tried later.

Formal sentencing of the elder Tarrence will await a ruling on a motion for a new trial, which Defense Attorney Sandy Paniello said he would file.

McCormack, who had represented Leonard's wife in court actions against him, disappeared Feb. 28 shortly after leaving a grocery store near his home. His concrete-weighted body was recovered from Harrod's creek, near Jeffersontown, March 8.

Leonard, a soldier absent without official leave from Fort Knox, confessed that he and his father abducted McCormack, killed him and threw his body into the creek. He then led officers to the spot where the body was recovered.

The father testified yesterday that he had nothing to do with the attorney's death except to help Leonard dispose of the body.

The post office at Appomattox Court House, site of Lee's surrender to Grant, once was called Surrender.

Money Truck Guards Are Suspended

DANVERS, Mass. — (AP) — The three guards of the armored truck which was robbed of $681,000 last week are under indefinite suspension from the company.

However, George Patton, jr., general manager of the U. S. Trucking Corp., owners of the armored truck, said last night "there is not a particle of evidence of complicity" against any of the three men.

Police say they still don't have a good clue to the Danvers robbery in which three men scooped the money from the armored car while the three guards drank coffee in a drug store.

Must Get Permit To Excavate on Township Roads

Road Commissioner Harry LaBar was given support by Dixon township voters last in a resolution requiring a permit to be issued before an excavation is made in any road, street or alley in the township.

In brief, anyone wishing to excavate in a roadway under the jurisdiction of LaBar must request a permit and post a $50 bond to insure that the roadway will not be damaged.

The applicant is required to restore the highway to as good a condition as it was before making the installation, the resolution stated. Bond money will be used to do the work if the applicant fails to meet requirements.

It was pointed out that the township is put to considerable expense by those who carelessly damage the highway in the process of installing sewers or water lines.

The resolution merely restates the authority given a highway or road authority under state statutes.

Clam Sauce Is Italian Favorite

We had a wonderful pile of hot spaghetti last night covered with Italian clam sauce. Our guests groaned with satisfaction. It was easy to do, too.

White Clam Sauce (for Spaghetti)

(Serves 6-8)

Thirty-six chowder clams with juice or equivalent amount quality canned minced clams, 6 cloves garlic, ¾ cup olive oil, few sprigs parsley, ground red pepper, black pepper.

Remove clams from juice and cook juice to a boil. Chop clams, garlic and parsley fine. Heat olive oil in saucepan with garlic until garlic is slightly brown. Add clams, juice, dash of black pepper, few pinches red pepper and parsley. Cook covered over low flame for 10 minutes. This sauce is sufficient for blending with two pounds of spaghetti.

Here's another really delicious but not very familiar dish:

Lamb Kabobs and Rice

(Serves 2)

Sixteen (1½ x 2-inch) squares of tender lamb, without bone, cut cross grain, 8 tiny whole onions, peeled, 8 (2-inch) squares green pepper, 8 tiny tomatoes or wedges, ½ cup olive oil, ½ cup vinegar (tarragon preferably), 1 teaspoon oregano, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 teaspoons rich prepared mustard, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 clove garlic, finely chopped, ¾ cup quick-cooking rice.

Wipe lamb cubes with damp cloth. Place in a large bowl with vegetables. Mix remaining ingredients, except rice, and add. Let stand 2 hours in refrigerator; stir several times. Arrange lamb and vegetables on 4 long or 6 short skewers (metal nut picks are good substitutes). For well-done lamb, leave space between pieces on skewers; for rare place close together. Broil under medium heat 10 to 12 minutes, turning until well browned.

Serve with quick Turkish rice made by adding ice cubes to ½ cup drippings to make ¾ cup cold liquid. Add to instant rice and cook according to package directions.

Veal Scallopini for Parties

We get many requests for a veal scallopini recipe. Well, here is a trustworthy one. It comes fresh out of the brand new pocket-size "Martha Logan's Meat Cook Book." Beth Bailey McLean and Thorä Hegstad Campbell wrote it and they sure know their meats. Now to veal cookery—

Veal Scallopini (6 servings)

Italian in origin, but very adaptable to American taste, this famous recipe is party fare. It may be kept warm over water or in a slow oven half an hour or so.

One and one-half pounds veal steak cut 1/2-inch thick, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 cup salad oil, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1 clove garlic, split, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 cup fat, 1 medium onion, sliced thin, 1 green pepper, cut in strips, 1 can (10 1/2-ounce) chicken bouillon, 1/4 pound mushrooms, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 6 pimiento olives, sliced.

Cut veal into serving pieces. Make a sauce by combining salt, paprika, oil, lemon juice, garlic, mustard, nutmeg and sugar. Heat well, or shake in a bottle to combine thoroughly. Lay veal flat in a baking pan. Pour the sauce over the veal. Turn pieces to coat with the sauce. Let stand 15 minutes. Remove garlic. Heat and set the oven at 350 degrees F. (moderate) or cook over low heat. Lift the veal from the sauce. Dip into flour. Brown well in hot fat in a skillet. Add onion and green pepper.

Combine chicken bouillon with remaining sauce and pour over the veal. Cover and cook slowly until veal is very tender, about 40 minutes. Clean and slice mushrooms. Brown lightly in butter. Add mushrooms and olives to the veal. Stir and dip the sauce over the veal. Cook about 5 minutes more.

You can serve this to the most discriminating guests.

Variations: Italians use sour wine in place of lemon juice in this recipe. Very good too, if two tablespoons of sherry are stirred into the sauce just before serving over the veal.

Veal Paprika (4 servings) Four veal chops (1-inch thick),

Ban Pilgrimages

SRINAGAR, Kashmir, (AP) — Communist authorities in West China's predominantly Moslem province of Sinkiang have banned pilgrimages of the faithful to Mecca.

Reports reaching Chinese Turkestan circles here said that no Han circles here said that no sacred Haj pilgrimage since the Communist occupation of Sinkiang in September, 1949.

Over 200,000 Communist troops are now stationed in Sinkiang, the reports added. Officials have imported "purely Chinese people" trusted by Peiping for settlement throughout Sinkiang.

8 slices bacon, 1 egg, slightly beaten, 1 tablespoon water, fine bread or cracker crumbs, 1 cup sour cream, 1 tablespoon paprika.

Pan fry the bacon in a heavy skillet. Remove bacon and keep hot. Dip the veal chops in the egg mixed with the water, then in the fine crumbs. Brown them in the hot bacon fat. Then add the sour cream. Cover and cook slowly until meat is fork tender, about one hour. Add paprika. Serve the veal with the bacon and sour cream sauce.

Irene Dunne, Offers Hints on How to Make Best-Dressed List

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—How does a gal get on the best-dressed lists? Irene Dunne offers a few hints.

The film queen was recently named one of the best-dressed women of America and has won similar honors in the past. Furthermore, these have been bona fide lists, not those dreamed up in some press agent's office.

How does she do it? "Frankly, I'm not sure," she remarked. "I don't think my press agent has enough pull to get me on the lists, so it couldn't be because of influence. But I don't spend a fortune on clothes and I don't go in for all the latest styles."

Buys Few Clothes

"Perhaps it is because of the way I buy clothes. I don't buy many, but what I do buy are of the best. When I look for an outfit, I don't want one that will merely last for a season. I make sure the clothes are well made and I generally pick things along classic lines. It's not unusual for my things to last six or eight years.

"If styles change and hems go up, I buy a dress that fits the current style. But I still have a basic wardrobe which can be worn in any year, regardless of the change of style."

"I think you'll find that the women who consistently make the best-dressed lists do not follow the latest styles. For instance, I'm sure you would never find the Duchess of Windsor and Mrs. William Paley buying the same dress."

Miss Dunne pointed out that she brought only three dresses back from a recent trip to Paris, whereas some clothes horses might return with trunks full. She believes American designers have a better understanding of the clothing needs for U.S. women. On the other hand, she admires the Parisian enthusiasm for dress design.

"It's exciting to be in Paris when the style showings are going on," she remarked. "The French have a verve for new fashions that is lacking here."

Nightclub Singer Repudiates Link With Manville

NEW YORK, (AP)—Night club singer Ruth Webb said yesterday she would never marry playboy Tommy Manville, regardless of what he says.

The asbestos heir said last week he intended to marry Miss Webb if he gets a divorce from his eighth wife, Georgina Campbell.

"I very definitely would not—under any circumstances—marry Mr. Manville, nor will I ever speak to him again," said Miss Webb.

Publicly regarding Manville's intentions regarding her have "upset me dreadfully, cost me quite a bit of work, and gotten me into serious trouble with my family," Miss Webb said.

When told of Miss Webb's remarks, Manville said:

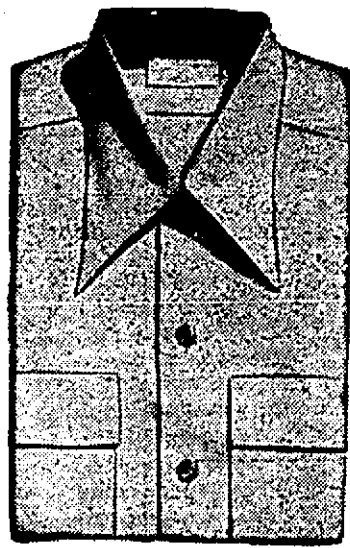

"Publicity has done more than annoy Tommy Manville. It has raised the price of a divorce from Georgina Campbell from $100,000 to $500,000—she's asking that now. Tommy and Georgina are legally separated."

Ohio Adds New Trophies to Bulging Case

WALTER G. SMITH, right, superintendent of schools in Ohio, receives an assortment of athletic trophies from Coach Chuck Vall—the result of a successful year in athletics for Ohio high school teams. Smith said that the present Ohio trophy case is not big enough to hold these additions, but promised a new case for them in the new gym, which will be ready for use next fall.

Four From Mt. Morris Win Latin Contests

MT. MORRIS—Four Mt. Morris high school students will compete in a sectional latin contest by virtue of their scores in a recent district contest. The contests are sponsored annually by the Illinois high school association.

The four Mt. Morris students competing in the district contest, which was held at Oregon, won the top two positions in both divisions. Noel McInnis and Donna Lamm finished in the one-two spot in Latin I division, and Mary Ellen Flores and Sylvia Zickuhr ranked similarly in Latin II.

Five schools had entered the district contest, but only three, Mt. Morris, Oregon and Genoa, had students present to write the 2½-hour exam.

Sectional winners will advance to the state meet in May at Rosary college, River Forest.

day evening at the Jake Busker home.

Postmaster Walter Hellener and daughter, Emmerson, visited friends in Nelson Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Farmer:

I was born and raised in West Brooklyn, Pop. 200, and have been close to farming and farm communities all my life. If you don't believe it go out north of West Brooklyn and ask Art Montavon or Ray Maier for whom I cut many an acre of oats and plowed many an acre of corn. Tell me what you need in the way of good farm legislation, and if you send me down to Springfield and need anything I'll howl my head off until you get it.

Mr. WW2 Veteran:

Being a veteran of WW2 myself I have been on the same post-war housing treadmill that you have. Believe me, I have had my share of crummy apartments at fantastic rentals, and I loath rent gougers as much as you do. My deepest efforts have been put forth for the Veterans as any one who knows me personally will gladly tell you.

Mr. Union Member:

Back in 1936 and 1937 I was working in the Railroad shops in Aurora, Ill., for apprentice pay which was about 36 cents an hour. We didn't have any union to protect us then and I don't mind telling you, many a time I went hungry rather than borrow from my friends because my pay check just didn't stretch. I know what bad working conditions and unfair labor practices can do to a man and I will invariably cast my ballot against these things.

A Few Reasons Why Lee County Voters Should Vote "Yes" on Bond Issue, Tuesday, April 8th, 1952

1. To help in preventing the loss of lives.

2. To prevent destruction of property.

3. To accommodate modern transportation.

4. To facilitate routing of school buses.

5. To assure truckers and farmers adequate means of reaching their destination.

6. To retain and encourage new business in Lee County.

7. To modernize bridges to match with the road building program.

A few excerpts from letters received by the County Superintendent of Highways are as follows:

LEE COUNTY FARM BUREAU "Due to deterioration caused by time, since the construction of the bridges which we now have, along with the tremendous increase in number and size of the loads now going over them it would seem that they have become inadequate."

DIXON JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE "Kindly be advised the Dixon Junior Chamber of Commerce realizes the definite need for replacement of bridges according to the program set out by the Road and Bridge Committee, and therefore, will support to the best available means the bond issue as set forth in the County Road Program."

BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION TRADES COUNCIL "We are no more in favor, than anyone else, of raising high taxes higher. Consideration for the safety of school children and the general public prompts us to support this bond issue."

ROCK ISLAND TRANSFER AND STORAGE COMPANY "Even though our home office is in Rock Island and we are being taxed to almost the limit it is our conviction that it is an advantage to everyone to support this issue and vote "yes" on your ballot April 8th."

DECORATED HOMES
Paintings and scrolls on the walls of Chinese homes are changed periodically to keep them

'Ambadress of Good Will' Is Making Friends for Bank

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—There have been times in America when the banker was regarded as an ogre in a starched collar, a Simon Legree of finance.

During periods of depression farmers sometimes used to keep a pitchfork sharpened, just in case the banker showed up to foreclose.

But bankers, as do convicts and baseball umpires, yearn to be liked. And lately they've been doing all sorts of things to make a bank more homey—from putting in soft music to providing nursery service while mama deposits papa's paycheck.

Banker Harold C. Hahn has pioneered a step farther.

"It would be nice if people could know we're not just a cold name but a friendly organization," mused Hahn, who is president of the First Federal Savings and Loan association of New York, one of the largest in America.

What bothered him was that in the post-war assembly line procedure of home-buying, his bank was arranging hundreds of mortgages through lawyers, real estate men and other intermediaries. But it wasn't meeting the homeowners' needs.

So he created one of the oddest posts in financial history—an "ambadress of good will" to go out and make friends among the young couples on whose homes his bank held mortgages. The job went to small, dark-haired Mrs. Clare Maxwell Young, a former psychology student and mother of 7-year-old twins.

She drives about 20,000 miles a year calling on housewives, explaining how the bank works, and discussing problems of household decoration and finance.

"My first problem is to convince them I haven't come to inspect the property or to see that the house is being kept up," she said. "Many people think of a bank as a cold-hearted institution just waiting to foreclose on them."

Lake Pontchartrain, La., is a landlocked salt-water bay.

Mrs. Young has had to deal with more than one emergency.

"Once I arrived at a home just as the family dog was run over in the street, the children came home from school, the phone rang and the baby fell out of the high chair," she recalled. "All this happened at the exact moment I pushed the doorbell."

"I helped bandage the dog, quiet the crying children, and soothe the baby. And soon the mother and I were sitting down talking things over."

Does it all pay? the bank thinks so. It has hired a second ambadress.

No Dead-End

FARMINGTON, N. M., (AP)—Mayor W. R. Gibson was pleased at first when the town board offered to name a street in a new subdivision for him. It didn't last. "Wait a minute," said the mayor, "that street's a dead-end."

Unique Way to Fry Chicken

If you want a variation on fried chicken, here it is from Mrs. Anne Barczewski of Glasgow, Del.

Fried Devil'd Chicken (Serves 3)

Two three-pound chickens, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard, 1 small white onion, grated; ¼ cup lemon juice, ¼ teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons salt, ¼ teaspoon black pepper, ¼ teaspoon red pepper, ½ cup flour, ½ cup butter, ½ cup lard.

Cut chickens in serving-size pieces. Mix mustard, onion, lemon juice, paprika, salt and pepper together and spread the mixture over the uncooked pieces of chicken, using a pastry brush. Roll chicken in flour. Heat butter and lard in heavy skillet. Fry the chicken over medium heat, uncovered, for about 45 minutes. Turn chicken occasionally to brown evenly.

Maybe we gave you this recipe before. It deserves retelling, if our taste is any standard. It was created by a fine cook from Snow Hill, Md., Mrs. Aubrey Romshe.

Oven Barbecue Chicken (Serves 4)

One three-pound chicken, 3 tablespoons fat; Sauce: one medium onion, chopped; ½ cup water, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 teaspoons vinegar, 2 heaping tablespoons brown sugar, ½ tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 can tomato sauce.

Cut chicken in serving-size pieces and brown in hot fat in frying pan; set browned chicken pieces in roasting pan. Brown chopped onion in remaining fat; add the rest of the sauce ingredients and let simmer 30 minutes. Pour sauce over chicken and cover pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for one hour, or until tender.

Gobs Teach Flying

SAIGON (AP)—Four United States navy pilots and mechanics are teaching the French how to fly the 12 seaplanes given them to help speed up the war against the Communist-led Vietminh forces.

The navy men plan to spend three months here teaching nine French pilots and 100 mechanics. The Vietnamese themselves do not yet have an air force, but pilot aspirants are keeping a keen eye on how the French are taught.

Want a lot of mileage for your money?

WE'LL admit that the price tags of automobiles—all automobiles—are what they used to be. But it's just as true today as ever before that some price tags are lower than others, and some cars cost less to own than others.

So let's see how a Buick SPECIAL fits into the picture.

Take first cost. If you put the price tag of this Buick against price tags of cars that have always been tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field"—you'll find that, in actual dollars, a Buick's surprisingly close to these cars of lesser size and horsepower.

But that's just the beginning. What you're getting here is Buick quality—this SPECIAL comes down the same assembly line as SUPERS and ROADMASTERS.

Its heft tells you it has extra sturdiness in frame and structure.

Its Fireball Engine delivers extra power. It is an eight, a valve-in-head, with high compression, and the miles you can get from a gallon of gas make it a thrifty performer.

You get Buick's Million Dollar Ride, which protects you—and the car—from jars and jolts.

Even the tires are bigger—which, any tire man will tell you, lengthens their wear.

And if you pay a bit extra for Dynaflo Drive* you're easing the strain on the engine, the rear end, the tires—and eliminating clutch repair bills.

So when we talk about "mileage for your money" we're talking about the miles you'll get from your car—including the unused miles that are what you have to sell when you trade it in.

Maybe that's why Buick's doing so well in the present market. Why not come in and see what a great car this is for you?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Wheel Covers standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series. White sidewalls optional at extra cost when available. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Gen. Gruenther, 'Brain of a Man'

Ike's Probable Successor Was Pegged as Winner for Years

By WADE JONES

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—If Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's wishes mean anything—and they usually do—the next supreme commander of the North Atlantic Treaty army may well be a compact, bridge-playing brain of a man from Nebraska.

That would be a four-star general named Alfred Maximilian Gruenther, now chief of staff for Ike.

His SHAPE staff members reserve for Gruenther such un-military-sounding tributes as stupendous, fabulous, fantastic. This enthusiasm for the sharp-minded general is shared, if in not quite such glowing terms, by the head men in the military.

Top brass had Gruenther (pronounced like month-er) pegged as a winner for years, and he came through for them. He was the anonymous planner of the Africa invasion under Ike in 1942 and later was chief-of-staff in Gen. Mark Clark's Fifth Army in the Mediterranean.

Strangely, Gruenther gained a spot in the public eye before he did with the military. And it all came about some 20 years ago in a curiously non-military matter.

An incident which happened then gives a pretty good insight into the man who may soon head the military strength of the Western World.

Back in the 1930's Gruenther, obscure as only an army lieutenant in the 30's could be, rose to sudden and singular prominence as, of all things, a tournament bridge director. (He was also a top player.)

His efforts to inject some military order into the tournament happened in the first tourney he directed. The reigning bridge star, the late P. Hal Sims, and several cronies showed up for play 10 minutes late.

Gruenther forthwith barred them from play. The ensuing argument lasted just 30 seconds. Sims and his friends sheepishly walked away.

GEN. ALFRED GRUENTHER: "Stupendous, fabulous, fantastic"

Other players who had already begun the tournament rose from their seats to cheer their dauntless director. Gruenther had latecomer trouble no more.

Twenty years later, Gruenther still is a fast man with a direct order, and his bridge-sharpened brain functions with a speed and clarity that is almost dumfounding.

With the people under him he is tough and demanding. He asks for a lot and he gives a lot. He once wrote in a letter, "If a man can work for me, he can work for anyone."

Rather than talk personally to his subordinates about all the day-to-day things that have to be done, he writes them notes which have become known at SHAPE as Gruenthergrams. He signs them with the letter "G." And who betide the officer who doesn't act as directed by the cryptic messages.

He has a quick temper, but he cools off fast. If things aren't going right in a conference of some kind, he indicates his displeasure by a series of loud, sharp coughs.

Gruenther has an amazing memory. Tell him your birth date and a year from now he can give it to you.

He astounds officials of NATO countries by reciting to them off the cuff such things as their steel output two years ago, how many locomotives they have, where their production bottlenecks lie.

A mind like this stands Gruenther in good stead when dealing with different countries on such complex and ticklish problems as who pays for what in NATO, which weapons shall be made the standard for all, who gets what raw materials and why.

Gruenther got invaluable training for his present job during World War II, and after.

The day he arrived in London in 1942, Ike told him, "Have a plan for the invasion of North Africa in five days." He did.

Later, as chief of staff for Gen. Clark, he not only planned the Fifth Army campaigns, but got important diplomatic experience in dealing with the officers of the many nations who had troops in the American Fifth and British Eighth armies.

General Clark once called him "the best damn soldier in the army."

For a time after the war Gruenther was deputy commander of our occupation forces in Austria. He was recalled to Washington in December, 1945, to be deputy commander of the National War College.

Two years later he was named director of the Joint Staff, which does the plans and logistics for the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

When Ike was named to head SHAPE a year ago he called again for Gruenther the planner.

"You're my chief of staff," Ike told Gruenther when the latter reported for duty. "I suppose you've started planning already." Gruenther had. From his pocket he pulled the blueprint for SHAPE.

Gruenther sums up the aims of SHAPE like this:

"Nobody can guarantee that Stalin won't start a war whether the West rearms or not. All I know is that if the West does build a force capable of halting the Red army, it may give Stalin some sober second thoughts."

From the way Gruenther goes at his job, you'd think he was building the forces of the West singlehanded. His work day often lasts 20 hours, including the heavy load of home work he takes with him from the office each night. And this is for a seven-day week, not five.

When he doesn't lunch with Ike, he has yogurt and crackers at his desk.

He often has as many as 20 visitors a day.

And when Eisenhower is away from his office, Gruenther handles all Ike's problems, as well as his own.

But despite the importance of his job, Gruenther is still "just an ordinary Midwestern American," says Major John S. Wood, his aide.

One of Gruenther's pet schemes at SHAPE was a semi-monthly tea for officers' wives at which he explained the important job they had to do in making things run smoothly. To Gruenther's regret, the parties had to be discontinued because of the pressure of work.

Gruenther can also be a very warm and human gent, an aspect

INDESTRUCTIBLE — Homer L. Cook, 49, of Chicago, kisses safety hook which saved him from a nine-story drop when his safety belt broke while he was washing skyscraper windows. It is the second time in 20 years on the job that he has brushed close to death. In 1949 Cook fell five stories and landed in a truck filled with mattresses.

General Ike Tells Folks He's 'Coming'

ABILENE, Kan. —(AP)— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower messaged home town friends that it is his "profound" hope to return to the United States well in advance of the Republican national convention July 7.

The five-star general who spent his boyhood here gave no hint, however, on whether he plans to lay aside his duties as supreme allied commander in Europe and campaign actively for the presidential nomination.

His message to friends in this central Kansas town was read by Gov. Edward F. Arn to a crowd assembled for ground breaking ceremonies at the site of the Eisenhower museum. The museum will house the general's $1,000,000 collection of war souvenirs.

Navy Role Limited

SINGAPORE (AP) — Britain's Royal Navy, long popularized as the "Silent Service," is more than living up to this reputation in Malayan waters—much to the disgust of every man-Jack in the area.

The British fleet in this area comprises a few frigates, minesweepers, and a flotilla of motor launches. Once in a while, the former are given a chance to cut loose with their four-inch guns against supposed Communist targets along the coast.

But the navy's main job here is to take small army patrols up jungle rivers and inlets and drop them in known Communist areas.

end passes you're signing?"

"Nonsense," said Gruenther, "they look like bridge scorecards to me." And he went right on signing the delighted veterans' week-end passes.

DOGGY DISCUSSION
The dog probably was the first animal to be domesticated by man. It happened so long ago that the dog's origin is rather obscure. Most important ancestor of the modern dog seems to have been the wolf.

Warm April Predicted by Forecasters

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The weather bureau said it will be warmer than normal during April in the western half of the country and colder than usual from the Appalachians eastward. The bureau's 30-day outlook added: "In other areas near normal temperatures are expected. This outlook suggests a reversal of conditions from those observed during March when the West averaged much colder than normal and the East slightly above normal. "Precipitation is expected to be subnormal over the Rock Mountain states and in the Great Lakes region, but above normal in the Southeast and Pacific northwest. Otherwise not far from normal amounts are indicated."

AUTHOR DIES
NEW YORK, (AP)—Author Ferenc Molnar, 74, whose "Liliom" became a theatrical classic, died yesterday after a long illness. The Hungarian-born Molnar came to the U.S. in 1940 as a refugee. "Liliom," his best-known work, was filmed by Hollywood and in 1946 was produced as a hit musical play under the title, "Carousel." Others of his better-known works are "The Red Mill" and "The Guardsman."

Illinois Bomber Wing to Return To State Control

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The 128th light bombardment wing from Illinois is one of 330 national guard air units to be returned to state control by next January. The air force announced yesterday that personnel from the Illinois wing who have not voluntarily extended their tours will be eligible for separation when the unit returns from Europe. The air force plans to organize new replacement wings for the 330 units which were called into active service after the outbreak of the Korean war.

A Woman Can Be on Time...

HAYS, Kas., (AP) — It all just goes to show you—once in a while a woman can be early for an appointment. Miss Ismet Sanlin, a speaker from Turkey on a national tour, arrived here yesterday to address the Knite and Fork club. She phoned Bill Roberts, secretary of the club. Roberts hustled to the depot but was mildly astonished when he saw Miss Sanlin. It seems the club's next speaker—a man—was scheduled for May 8. Miss Sanlin, who will talk on "Turkey with all the Dressing," is scheduled for April, 1953.

Fleet Increases

ROME (AP) — Through American aid, Italy now owns the largest merchant fleet which has ever sailed under the Italian flag. At the end of 1951, the Italian merchant marine had 7 per cent tonnage more than the 2,955,724 tons it boasted in 1941. The 1951 figure was 3,156,037 tons, comprising 1,247 ships. Italy has now stepped into seventh position in world tonnage, with 3.3 per cent of the total. The United States tops the list with 31.3 per cent of the tonnage. Lord Fairfax, whose lands in the Shenandoah Valley he surveyed in 1784, was George Washington's first employer.

Enjoy Tuna With Curry Sauce

Tuna is about the most popular of family fish treats. The supply is large now and that means prices are lower.

Tuna With Curry Sauce
(Serves 2)
One can tuna (7-ounce), 2 tablespoons butter, 1 clove garlic, 1 medium onion, cut in rings, 1/2 bay leaf, 1 tablespoon curry powder, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup water.
Drain tuna. Break into chunks. Melt butter in a saucepan. Add garlic, onion rings and bay leaf and cook until onion is tender, about 10 minutes. Remove garlic. Stir in curry powder, flour and salt. Add water, stirring until well blended. Cook 10 to 15 minutes. Strain and pour over tuna. Serve with rice and chutney.

Here's an inexpensive tuna newburg using shredded tuna (costs less) and non-fat dry milk (inexpensive). It comes from California, land of good eating.

California Tuna Newburg
(Serves 5 or 6)
Four tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 3 tablespoons flour, 5 tablespoons non-fat dry milk, 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 cup sherry wine or juice of 1/2 lemon in about 1/2 cup water, 1 egg yolk, slightly beaten, dash of nutmeg, salt and pepper to taste, 2 (7-ounce) cans tuna, drained and flaked.
Melt butter in a saucepan. Remove from heat. Mix flour and non-fat dry milk; add to butter, stirring until smooth. Add water gradually, blending well. Return to heat. Cook stirring constantly, until mixture boils and thickens.
Add wine or water and lemon juice. Stir a little of this sauce into the egg yolk; stir this mixture back into the remaining sauce. Add seasonings and tuna. Stir gently over very low heat for a minute or two. Serve immediately in patty shells or toast cases, or on toast.

Working Girl

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill., (AP)—An 85-year-old woman asked Lawrence County Clerk Bill Hensley for an absentee ballot. He suggested that she cast her vote then and get it over with. But she replied, "I haven't time—must get back to my job."
"Your job?" said the clerk, glancing again at the 85 years she listed.
"Oh, I'm taking care of an old lady," she said, and hustled out.

TUNISIA'S NEW PREMIER—Salah Eddine Baccouche, 67, serves as premier of Tunisia for the second time. Pro-French, Baccouche first served as premier after the liberation of Tunis in 1943. He now succeeds Mohammed Chenik, who was arrested by the French authorities for being in sympathy with extreme nationalist forces in Tunisia.

Bar Group Urges Abolishment of Most Lower Courts

CHICAGO, (AP)—The Chicago and Illinois Bar association propose doing away with all state courts except the circuit courts. The plan would eliminate superior, municipal, probate and county courts, as well as city courts and justices of the peace. By doing this, said the associations, judges would be taken "out of politics" and justice streamlined. The circuit courts would handle all cases now referred to the other courts. A 17-man committee representing the two bar groups drafted the plan as a proposed revision of the judiciary article of the state constitution. The committee was headed by Barnabas F. Sears of Aurora.

Threatens Wife, Family With Gun, Adeline Man Held

OREGON—A 44-year old Adeline man was arrested by Ogle county Sheriff James White Tuesday on a charge that he had forced his wife and four children against the wall of their home and threatened them with a gun. The man, Frank Leisson, was bound over to the grand jury and bond was set at $5,000. Neighbors also reported that they had found his wife on several occasions tied to a chair in their home. Leisson was booked for assault with a deadly weapon on a complaint signed by Mrs. Lillian Liewillyn, county probation officer.

Applies by Tape

MONTREAL, (AP)—Rev. Alex S. Renton, of Scotland, received a call from the First Presbyterian church of suburban Verdun after the congregation had listened to a tape recording of his voice. Unable to come to Canada to preach, the Scotsman had a tape recording made and mailed it to Verdun. The congregation met and listened to the play-back. As soon as the recording ended, the members voted to ask the Rev. Mr. Renton to become minister. The call to the Rev. Mr. Renton follows a decision of the church some years ago to select its pastors from outside Canada. The Rev. Mr. Renton succeeds the late Rev. Donald M. Correal who was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., and left a church at Plainfield, N.J., to become pastor at Verdun.

Pilot Pays Off

SANTA ANA, Calif., (AP)—Early in 1943 a German Luftwaffe captain boasted the Nazis would sweep their foes out of the skies. A captured American bomber pilot waded the best bottle of brandy available after the war that the German was wrong. Early this month David Farrell, of Santa Ana, the wartime pilot, collected. The loser, Capt. Waldemar Wuehke, now living in Bogota, Colombia, remembered the bet when he met a New York woman in South America. He sent $10 back with her. She sent it to a sister in Compton, Calif., who gave it to Farrell's father in Long Beach. Since the former captain doesn't drink, he turned the winnings over to the boys' fund of the Santa Ana Optimist club.

Ease Penalty

SINGAPORE, (AP)—Mothers who murder their newly born up to 12 months of age, while their minds are disturbed after child birth will not in the future be put to death, according to a proposed law. Proposing the amendment to the colony's penal code, the attorney-general said under the existing law, a woman faces the capital charge if she commits an offense against her child while emotionally disturbed after child birth.

PERMIT FOR OBTAINING A PERMIT TO MAKE AN EXCAVATION IN ANY ROAD, STREET OR ALLEY OF DIXON TOWNSHIP, LEE COUNTY, ILLINOIS
WHEREAS the Law of the State of Illinois requires that the permit to excavate in any road, street or alley having jurisdiction over the public road in which an excavation is to be made be procured before the excavation is made; and
WHEREAS the Township Highway Commissioner of Dixon Township, Lee County, Illinois has jurisdiction of all the roads, streets and alleys controlled by said township, said undersigned commissioner requires that the following procedure be pursued to acquire the permission to make an excavation in any road, street or alley under his jurisdiction:
1. No person shall make an excavation in any street, road or alley of Dixon Township under the jurisdiction of the undersigned Highway Commissioner without a permit of the Township Highway Commissioner, with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that the applicant shall save the Township free from all damages, including costs of defending such claims, as may arise from the excavation.
2. The applicant shall restore the street, road or alley in said township to as good a condition as it was before making the excavation. Upon completion he shall notify the Township Clerk. The undersigned commissioner will then inspect the restoration and report to the Clerk whether the restoration is satisfactory.
3. The deposit of Fifty Dollars shall be kept separate from other Township Funds and shall be refunded on the approval of the restoration by the undersigned commissioner. In event that proper restoration is not made after one notice of an unsatisfactory restoration the undersigned commissioner shall use so much of the deposit as is necessary to make proper restoration.

Thief Eats Onions
PORTALES, N. M. (AP)—Deputy sheriffs were instructed to use their noses in tracking down a thief who broke into the projection booth and popcorn stand at a drive-in theater.
"He ate half of an onion while in the popcorn building," the sheriff told his officers.

Variety in Travel
MT. VERNON, Ill., (AP)—It took a plane, trains, bus and a car, but an "Army family" made it from Alaska to Mt. Vernon recently.
M/Sgt. C. O. Donoho, his wife and two children, adopted in Alaska, visited her parents here en route to a North Carolina assignment. They flew from Anchorage to Seattle, entrained to Chicago, took a bus to Detroit, bought a car and drove the rest of the way.

STAMP HAILS HAWAII—Hawaii was so elated over the new 80-cent airmail stamp (inset), showing the Islands' famed Diamond Head landmark that they spread the word far and wide—in a practical way. One florist airmailed, under first-day covers, orchids to 600 stamp collectors throughout the U. S. Above, pretty Pat Barrett, in Honolulu, displays some of the Hawaiian-decorated boxes in which Pan American World Airways sent "Easter bonnets" to mayors and postmasters in all principal cities of the U. S. Some of the straw bonnets—called "papaies"—are seen at bottom of photo.

Reporter's 'Scoop' Carrot Scallop Colors Menus

Carrot prices have dropped. Try them in salads with diced apples or orange sections. Grated, they add color and nutrition to jellied salads. In sandwiches, use raw, grated carrots with cottage or cream cheese, with peanut butter, or with chopped peanuts and salad dressing.

This hot dish is good, too:
Carrot Scallop

Arrange 3 cups of sliced cooked carrots in a baking dish. Pour over them 2 cups of thin white sauce. Sprinkle with a mixture of bread crumbs and grated cheese. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 20 minutes or until browned.

You can also pan carrots in melted fat and fry carrots with sliced onions and with apples.

Budget menus, to be delicious and well balanced, need careful planning a day or so in advance. Here are a few based on abundant foods:

Dinner: Tomato juice cocktail, baked beef roll with oxtail sauce, julienne carrots, fluffy mashed potatoes, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, baked pears and wafers, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Stuffed cabbage leaves stewed tomatoes, whipped potatoes, carrot and celery salad, enriched hard rolls, butter or fortified margarine, chocolate peppermint custard, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Tongue shortcakes, steamed broccoli, celery knob salad, spicy applesauce cake, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Braised pork steaks, parsley buttered potatoes, buttered kale, glazed carrots, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, baked apples, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Spinach soufflé with mushroom sauce, baked potatoes, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, tossed escarole and raw vegetable salad, leftover spice cake, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Kidney pie with biscuit topping (using celery, potatoes, carrots and onions), pickled beet salad, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, orange ambrosia, coffee, milk.
